PROFESSIONAL THEATER SPEAKER

Elizabeth Frankel '01 will be at Colby on Monday, March 3rd and Tuesday, March 4th as part of the Department of Theater & Dance Professional Series. Currently she lives in New York City and is the Literary Associate at The Public Theater. Elizabeth will give a talk in Smith Lounge on Monday, March 3rd from 4:15p to 5:15p. The focus of the talk is "Job Opportunities in Professional Theater" and it will followed by a question and answer session.

As the Literary Associate at The Public Theater, Elizabeth Frankel oversees all new play submissions and is actively involved in selecting the work The Public produces. She runs the Public's Emerging Writers Group and regularly produces readings festivals. Elizabeth has previously worked at Waxman Williams Entertainment, Miramax Films and in the literary office of Manhattan Theatre Club.

*Intern, Project Management, Charles Schwab (finance)

Schwab prefers college students entering their junior or senior year; all candidates must be able to work in the United States on a permanent basis. Interns work in locations including Charlotte, N.C., Denver, Indianapolis, Phoenix, Richfield, OH, and San Francisco.

*Intern, The Women's Building, San Francisco, CA

Internships are matched to the students' interests and the organizations' needs. Interns may work in such capacities as Information Associate, Media Assistant, Development Associate, Event Coordinator Associate or Volunteer Coordinator.

*New England Patriots/Revolution Internship, Foxborough, MA

An opportunity to be involved in the daily activities of the New England Patriots/Revolution Marketing Department.

*Summer Internships in Development, William J. Clinton Foundation, New York, Boston, Little Rock.

Interns have the responsibility of interacting directly with staff, volunteers and Foundation stakeholders, in such activities as communications, development, and scheduling. Through firsthand experience you learn how the Clinton Foundation functions on a daily basis, and assist with this process directly.
