Greetings,

The warm weather has finally arrived in New York City, and the NYCC is working hard to bring some great events to you in the coming months. Colby's summer kicked off with the largest reunion weekend ever, with over 1,600 participants, not to mention a collective $17 million in gifts. Please see the banner on the right for more informaion.

Here in New York City we have several exciting upcoming events to share:

- Join current students and recent alumni for our third annual panel and networking reception on the topic: "What I Wish I Knew Five Years Ago" on Thursday, June 26th at the Teach for America National Offices at 6:30 p.m. The panel discussion will be followed by a happy hour at District Tap House. This year's panelists, spanning a wide range of industries and career experiences, include: Molly Corbett '09, Ryan Fischer '11, Emily Marzulli '10, Khoa Nguyen '11, Beth Ponsot '10, and Audell Scarlett '10. This year's moderator will be Tim Stenovec '06. To learn more about our moderator and panelists I encourage you to visit the Young Alumni Panel Webpage.

- On Wednesday, July 16, the Williams Club of New York is hosting their annual NESCAC Happy Hour at the Princeton Club of New York. Nicole Murakami '11 is helping to organize the event, which is a great opportunity to reconnect with fellow alumni from Colby and other NESCAC schools.

- Later in the month, Steve Cummings '77 is hosting a reception for alumni in Finance at the UBS offices on Park Avenue in midtown. We are holding the event during the summer months so the recent graduates and current Colby students interning in New York City can attend. More information and a formal invitation will follow shortly.

Finally, I wanted to end this newsletter with a specific ask, as we need your help. The NYCC continues to look for good volunteer opportunities suitable for a group of alumni in the New York City area, and we are constantly looking for new venues for our various events. If you are involved with a non-profit in need of volunteers, or have space (conference rooms, auditoriums, restaurants, etc.) that would be suitable for a NYCC event, please contact Meghan Gray at msgray@colby.edu.

As always, please do not hesitate to let me know if you have ideas for events or initiatives.

Warm Regards,

Ben Herbst '08
President, New York Colby Club
