COLBY COLLEGE BICENTENNIAL: 1813-2013

Hello DC area Colby Alums,

The Colby Club of DC has been busy celebrating the 200th Birthday of our Alma Mater over the past few weeks – we sang Happy Birthday at Mad Hatter, and celebrated with Bro Adams at the Phillips Collection. We also participated in the March Mania fundraising competition, along with over 1,000 young Colby alumni.

This month, we have 3 exciting events coming up that we'd like to let you know about.

Join us on the Annual Earth Day River Clean Up. We will be getting dirty and having fun with the Anacostia Watershed Society, cleaning up the Potomac River and learning about the ecology and history of the river and its watershed. Afterwards, enjoy free food and drinks with your fellow alums at the Seafarers Yacht Club. For more information, contact Sarah Sorenson '11 at jssorenson@gmail.com Register by clicking here.

Master storyteller Mike Daisey '96 is back in DC to perform his newest monologue, American Utopias, on Thursday, April 18 at 8 p.m. at the Woolly Mammoth Theatre Company in Penn Quarter/Chinatown. Colby's reserved seats have already sold out, but more are available at <http://www.woollymammoth.net/>.

On Saturday, May 4th we will be off to the races at University Row for the Virginia Gold Cup. We are again partnering with Boston University, but this year all of the NESCAC schools will be represented under the tent. Your all-inclusive ticket provides you access to the exclusive tent area, quality buffet, open bar with premium liquor and beer selections, and bus transportation to Great Meadow from Ballston, all in addition to the horse races themselves. As always, please email us at colbyclubofdc@colby.edu if
