This map displays the location of wetland areas in the Belgrade Lakes Region. Wetlands are areas of land whose soil is saturated with water either permanently or seasonally. These habitats are some of the most productive and biologically diverse ecosystems in the world. However, wetland areas have diminished in recent history due to large-scale draining efforts for real estate developments and other human uses.

Legend
- Water
- Wetlands Area

Taylor G. Tully
Environmental Studies Program
Colby College
Spring 2010

This map was made using ESRI ArcGIS 9 software.

Universal Transverse Mercator Projection, Zone 19N
North American Datum 1983

All data are from the Colby Environmental Assessment Team and the laboratory of Professor Russel Cole and Professor David Firmage at Colby College.