The map shows the primary function of each impoundment in Maine. Each symbol roughly matches the purpose of each dam as it is represented on the map. The water layer was created by appending 100k tiles of all the impoundments layer represents the "primary purpose" of each dam.