LOOKING FORWARD

THURSDAY, JAN. 19
PUGH CENTER

JOIN US for a series of brief panel discussions that explore contemporary social and political issues from a variety of disciplinary, theoretical, and political perspectives. Add your voice to the discussion!

SESSION ONE: Economics
8:30—9:30 a.m.
Moderated by Lori Kletzer, Provost and Dean of Faculty

SESSION TWO: Civil Liberties
12:15—1:15 p.m.
Moderated by Joe Atkins, Assistant Dean of Students

SESSION THREE: The Environment
4:15—5:15 p.m.
Moderated by Gail Carlson, Assistant Professor of Environmental Studies

Meals will be provided for each session.

Sponsored by the Office of the Dean of the College, Campus Life, the Dean of Students Office, Human Resources, the Goldfarb Center for Public Affairs and Civic Engagement, the Pugh Center, and the Office of the Provost