

Noontime Faculty Forum

Fall 2017

- Wed., Sept. 13 Hideko Abe, East Asian Studies
“Linguistic Practices of Japanese Transgender Speakers”
- Wed., Sept. 20 Paul Josephson, History
“Science and False Science in an Age of Putin and Trump”
- Thur., Sept. 28 Adam Howard, Education
“Globally Elite: Privileged Lessons of Global Citizenship Education”
- Thur., Oct. 5 Greg Drozd, Chemistry
“Impacts of emissions controls on air toxic emissions from vehicles in the U.S.”
- Wed, Oct. 11 Bess Koffman, Geology
“Ice Core Investigations of Volcanoes and Climate”
- Wed, Oct. 18 Allecia Reid, Psychology
“Peer Influences on Alcohol Use: Implications of Psychological Processes for Behavior Change”
- Wed., Oct. 25 Dale Kocevski, Astronomy
“Connecting Black Hole Growth and Galaxy Evolution Across Cosmic Time”
- Wed., Nov. 1 Jim Behuniak, Philosophy
“Towards a Social Philosophy: Dewey’s Restored China Lectures”
- Wed., Nov. 8 Damon Mayrl, Sociology
“The ‘Hidden’ American State Reconsidered: Theorizing State Visibility”
- Thur., Nov. 16 Megan Cook, English
“Chaucer the ‘Right Wyclevian’? John Foxe and the Chauserian Apocrypha”
- Thur, Nov. 30 Toby Bercovici, Theater & Dance
“The Life and Death of Queen Margaret: Creating a Feminist Dance-Theatre Adaptation of Shakespeare”
- Wed, Dec. 6 Erin Murphy, Cinema Studies
“Collaborative Documentary Filmmaking with Kesho Wazo, a youth activist art collective in Portland”

* Talks are held in the Wormser Room of Miller Library beginning at, well, noon.