Thank you for interest in the Community Advisor position. By reading this you have taken the first step in our application process.

Applying for the position of Community Advisor consists of the following:

1) Submit a resume
2) Submit cover letter addressing the following questions;
   - Why do you believe you are a good fit for the Community Advisor position?
   - How do you define the term community and what factors contribute to the creation of a well-established and all-inclusive community?
   - What are the needs of our students within their residence halls (...and of our school community at large?)?
   - How will you work with diverse populations of students to meet those needs?
   - In what activities do you participate on campus and how will they enhance your role as a CA?
3) Participate in a group interview. Return for individual interview, by invitation.
