Welcome to Colby College!

New England Animal Hospital is a full-service veterinary clinic in Waterville. Dr. Russell Danner, DVM, is a research scientist at Colby College and has 20 years of veterinary practice experience. He is excited to serve the Colby community. We provide a wide range of pet services including annual vaccinations, diagnostic lab work, radiography, surgery, and preventative health. Our clinic sees cats, dogs and exotic pets including birds, ferrets, rabbits, and reptiles. We are committed to providing veterinary care in a compassionate, trustworthy, and educational atmosphere.

As part of our commitment to continuing education, we are offering Colby College staff and students a 15% discount on all veterinary services. Please bring your Colby College ID card to your first appointment. We can also help you transfer your pets' records to Maine, update vaccinations, and get your pet licensed in the surrounding community.

Our office number is (207) 873-4668. We are located at 2 Pleasant St. in Waterville. We look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,
Dr. Danner & Staff
