

JAN PLAN CREDIT

Colby students on some programs which are in session for most of January and whose total duration is at least eighteen weeks are exempt from the January program requirement for that year. Holidays and vacation periods are deducted from the 18 weeks. Students who are abroad for a full year, are also exempt from Jan Plan for that year (and may not return to Colby for Jan Plan that year). Each student who is in residence for seven or more semesters must complete three January programs but must complete two if in residence for six semesters or fewer.

Jan Plan credit will not appear on your Colby record until you complete the program and your transcript is received.

When registering for Jan Plan that year, select "no Jan Plan".
