Preliminary Final Examination Schedule (Basic): Fall 2022

Final examinations for the Fall 2022 semester will be administered as scheduled below. Examinations are up to three hours in length. Examination numbers can be found on students' schedules and in Curriculum Search after the add deadline. Exams are confirmed via Official Notice. Details, including room assignments for specific courses, will be added later in the semester.

Students with two examinations at the same time, three on the same day of the week, four in sequence, or exams that conflict with observation of a religious holiday, can obtain conflict clearance or postponement forms at the Registrar's office or via the "Forms for Students" link on the Web.

Final examinations cannot be rescheduled to accommodate travel plans. Students should not make travel plans until they have full knowledge of their final examination schedule.
