

List of “Vernon Lee (Violet Paget) Letters Home”

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
1	January 1, 1866	Violet Paget to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Oxford, England)	Thanks him for a "swet broch" he had given her; includes watercolor of Eugene labeled "The pride of Oxford and Oriel." [Includes separate watercolor drawing.]
2	January 6, 1866	Violet Paget to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Oxford, England)	Sends him birthday greetings; tells of trip to see the opera "Doiw Roffiloim now Lanjuman." [Includes separate watercolor drawing.]
3	November 28, 1866	Violet Paget (Baden-Baden, Germany) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Oxford, England)	Has two teachers now, one for German and arithmetic, the other for French; mother has given her book by "le chainsin shmit."
4	March 3, 1866	Violet Paget (Baden-Baden, Germany) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Oxford, England)	Thanks him for stamps he sent her; asks for more stamps and arms of Oxford and Cambridge
5	no date, 1866	Violet Paget (Baden-Baden, Germany) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Oxford, England)	Acknowledges receipt of his letter; describes her birthday gifts. Enclosure reads: "Mamma and Baby to the Bruder."
6	no date, 1866	Violet Paget (Baden-Baden, Germany) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Oxford, England)	"Old Flower" (?) fled to France, having pawned his silver for 900 francs.
7	June 16, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Her cousins and Mary Trump called; description of Mrs. Jenkin's house, appearance and Mrs. Jenkin's theory that "No one can be happy. That when anyone attains to perfect happiness he necessarily dies"; Mrs. Jenkins advising on composition and French lessons; VP reading "Sixte Quinte" by Baron Hubner.
8	June 17, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Description of the Ruffini's house, after a visit there; she had been to Mr. Story's studio in Rome; Mrs. Turner told her about publishing; she will write more, now that Eugene can "post our letter to you gratis"
9	June 22, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Very unflattering description of Mrs. Jenkin's husband; Mrs. Jenkin found her a "mistress of French style," a Madame Blancheotte; Eugene is to dine with Madam Planat de la Fey and will meet the actress Madame Ristori
10	June 23, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	A visit by the "perfect Frenchman" Wrotnowski; describes the hideous, ornate architecture of Paris' new public buildings, under the government of Napoleon III; new signs in Paris saying "La Majeste Robespierre," which she calls "some absurdity of the Rouge party."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
11	June 26, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	A visit to Mrs. Jenkin, whom they "luckily found alone"; records a "peu pres," of the conversation among Mrs. Paget, Eugene, and Mrs. Jenkin, concerning "attraction and repulsion," Dante, and authors' leading ideas.
12	July 16-17, 21, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Visit from Mrs. Jenkin, who is interested in the 1848 Maygar insurrection for her novel; visit to a bookstall; 17th--Mrs. Jenkin's stories about "old Mrs. Murray." 21st-- she can't find books on 18th century music for her essay; she is reading Mrs. Turner's novel "Charity."
13	July 28-29, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Violet, Eugene, and Mamma visit Mrs. Jenkin; record of their conversation about Violet's whistling and opera singers in Rome; Mrs. Jenkin criticizes Violet's faulty copy of Eugene's essay; 29th--her disgust with the way the Swiss paper "La Famille" is treating her "Les Aventures d'une Piece de Monnaie."
14	August 4-5, 6-7, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Eugene's essay to be sent to the "North British Review" at Mrs. Jenkin's suggestion; 5th--copy of a note Mrs. Jenkin sent to Eugene about his essay and Violet's potential; 7th--copy of a note, in French, she received from "that donky Vulliet," editor of "La Famille"; sends regards to Mme. Eggemann as "I am so busy in the literary line that I cannot write to her just now."
15	August 4, 7-8 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	7th--100,000 men marched on Ministere de l'Interieur in Paris; 8th--copy of a letter she received from Mrs. Turner praising "La Biographie d'une Monnaie"; an unexpected visit from the Jenkins; political problems in France; she is reading Plutarch's "Lives" and Story's "Roba di Roma."
16	August 8-9, 1870	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	8th--a frightening mob gathered outside the Paget's windows in a noisy "patriotic demonstration against the Prussians"; 9th--more citizen uprising finally subdued by new political appointments; the Paget-Hamilton household in a state of great excitement.
17	February 15, 1871	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Seige of Paris is over; the carnival is going on; description of a "decayed gentleman" she met, who claims to be the Comte de Cleremont; observation that Paris is still in the 18th century; includes copy of her story "Capo Serpente" which she is trying to get published.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
18	April 19, 1871	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Laments that Mrs. Jenkin has decided to write no more novels; she is reading Kavanagh's "French Women of Letters" and "English Women of Letters"; she is working to improve her Italian; the gardens in Rome are outstanding; her mother is learning to play the mandolin; they will leave Rome within a month.
19	May 15, 17 1871	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henry Paget	A trip to the Teatro Valle; description of a terrible play, "The Glacier of Mount Blanc." 17th--note from Matilda Paget to Henry Paget concerning travel arrangements.
20	June 28, 1871	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	A visit by Violet and her schoolmaster to the Bosco Parrasio which houses the Accademia delgi Arcadi; a "precis of the history of the literary society"; description of the villa and its incompetent curator; her plans to write a biography of Metastasio, with fragments of translation of his works; a trip to see Ristori as "Phedre" at the Teatro Apollo
21	July 1, 1871	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	She clarifies her plans for a work on Metastasio: a series of papers on "Metstasio and his correspondents," Mrs Jenkin apparently having suggested that criticism or history or biography might be unwise; they wait to rejoin Eugene in Paris.
22	August 1, 1871	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henry Paget	Saw Bressant playing Alceste in "The Misanthrope."
23	August 27, 1871	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Henrietta Jenkin	Sends Mrs. Jenkin a volume of Racine; she puts herself in the French, rather than English, class of Mrs. Jenkin's correspondents, as "your letters are always awaited with impatience and received with rejoicing"; she accepts Mrs. Jenkin's advice about the Metastasio work.
24	October 5, 1872	Violet Paget (Bologna, Italy) to Henry Paget	Is planning to go to a Rossini play; previous day had been the feast of St. Petronius, with much celebration; visit to the Philharmonic Lyceum.
25	February 18, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Cornelia Turner	Has deferred her work on Metastasio until she has gained "a more or less thorough acquaintance with aesthetics in general"; she is learning Latin and counterpoint; recurrances of the previous summer's illness prevent her from working; cites her admiration for Shelley and Goldoni.
26	March 15, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugen Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French and English

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
27	March 23, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugen Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
28	March 31, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugen Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
29	April 2, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French. To Emily Sargent?
30	April 4, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
31	April 12, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
32	April 15, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
33	April 16, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
34	April 20-21, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
35	April 22, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
36	April 23, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
37	April 24, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
38	April 25, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
39	April 27, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
40	April 29, 1873	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Letter written in French
41	July 15, 1874	Violet Paget (Salzburg, Austria) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, Francis)	Her continued interest in Clementi; they left Rome because of her illness; on the way to Salzburg, stops at Bologna, Padua and Verona; her dislike of Germany; Eugene's health improving.
42	April 19, 1874	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Thanks Mrs. Jenkin for her help in the Clementi business and says she advertised for information about Clementi in the "Athenaeum" too; Eugene very ill and ignoring doctor's orders; she feels herself unsuited to pursue music seriously, but perhaps she might write on comparative aesthetics or the aesthetics of music.
43	March 10, 1874	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Asks her to assist some Romans, led by Violet's music teacher, in makin a biography of Muzio Clementi; Eugene is very ill; she is learning to sing and asks advice about practicing; asks the title of Mrs. Jenkin's new novel.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
44	August 22, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Pagets have been travelling from Munich to Innsbruck, to Recoaro, to Vicenza, to Padua and Bologna; she continues to gather information on the musician Clementi; she is reading on the Italian Renaissance; ask for the "modus operandi" of publishing novels; she has given up piano, and is concentrating on voice lessons.
45	September 4, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Has enjoyed Mrs. Jenkin's new novel; feels there should be a book written on music, consisting of "the aesthetical, abstract examination of principles, illustrated by examples, then the historical, critical part"; her contempt for dilettantes in music; Eugene has had "a slight relapse."
46	September 29, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Eugene to have an interview with Mr. William Blackwood about publishing stories in his magazine; Violet would like to write about Bologna for the magazine.
47	October 2, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Asks for an introduction to a magazine; her desire to write, someday, on literature and art; Eugene has had a serious relapse.
48	October 14, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin (Paris, France)	Has completed her essay, "Autumnal Impressions of Bologna," and is trying to get it published by Blackwood or Fraser's Magazine; her distaste for doing translations.
49	October 23, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Asks Mrs. Jenkin to give her mss. to Mr. Constable of Blackwood's for a reading; beginning one series of articles about "various quaint things I have met in Italian towns or Italian books," and another on "aesthetical subjects growing with my own lights and following the course of my studies."
50	October 24, 1874	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Retracts her request of the previous day, that Mr. Constable be a mediator between herself and Blackwood's; asks Mrs. Jenkin to send the mss. herself to Blackwood's editor.
51	November 7-8, 1874	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Has received news of Mrs. Turner's death; doubts about her essay in its finished form; "My besetting sin is redundancy"; 8th--She is sending the mss. to Mrs. Jenkin

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
52	December 20, 1874	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Asks her to return the mss. if it is rejected by Blackwood's so she can improve on it; Eugene seriously ill again; her music lessons continue; she is reading Taine's "de l'Ideal dans l'Arte" and Muller's lectures on the science of language.
53	January 28, 1875	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	No word from publishers on her article, nor has Eugene heard from Blackwood's; she is reading Muller on philology and comparative mythology; first draft of a paper on the Arcadi written; she wants to do a series of papers on musical aesthetics and studies of Arcadi, Frugoni, Goldoni, Metastasio, and Hasse.
54	April 6, 1875	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Has reconsidered her wish to have her article published anonymously, and has chosen H.P. Vernon Lee as her pen name; still no word from Blackwood's about accepting her or Eugene's articles.
55	April 30, 1875	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Her amusement at the unexplained loss of her mss; she is sending a story about Germany to an Italian review, "Nuova Autologia" and awaits its rejections
56	May 18, 1875	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Considers sending her mss. of "Autumnal Impressions of Bologna" to "Contemporary Review" as Blackwood's hasn't accepted it; the "Nuova Antologia" hasn't accepted yet her story about Germany; Eugene has had another relapse
57	May 19, 1875	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Wants Mrs. Jenkin to be sure that "Contemporary Review" knows she expects payment for her article on Bologna, if it is accepted.
58	June 18, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Asks what needs to be communicated to Sig. Zeni; "Contemporary Review" rejected her article on Bologna; Mr. Turner sent her a watch which his wife had; she is trying novel criticism; Mr. Fenzi's unflattering description of the author Onida.
60	June 20, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Her resentment at Blackwood's rejection of her article; "Revista Europia" offered her 8 pp./month to write reviews of female novelists; she is writing an article on the author Onida.
61	July 20, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Asks her to send the "Autumnal Impressions of Bologna" manuscript to Coomes Booksellers who might find a publisher for it; newest articles on musical aesthetics seemingly done by "newspaper critics"; she thinks "Middlemarch" "clever," "disagreeable," and "tiresome."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
62	July 23, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Has communicated with Mr. Ruffini about reviewing Mrs. Jenkin's novels, and hopes she will not be thought impertinent.
63	July 27, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Asks how the title of Mrs. Jenkin's book "Once and Again" might be translated into Italian.
63.1	August 6, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Wants the Italian title immediately. Asks Mrs. Jenkin to tear out certain pages of her article on Bologna
64	August 28, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Her first article in the "Revista Europia" will appear in September, the article about Mrs. Jenkin, in October; later articles will be on Miss Kavanagh, Mrs. Gaskell, George Eliot; she has invested in a society of amateur authors.
65	August 29, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Asks her to send the "Bologna" manuscript herself, directly to Fraser's.
66	October 2, 1875	Violet Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Sends her the review of "Once and Again" from the "Revista Europia"; repeats her request that her "Bologna" article be sent directly to Fraser's
67	December 18, 1878	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Henrietta Jenkin	Fraser's wants her to continue her series on the 18th century in Italy; she is writing on the Italian Comedy of Masks; her acquaintance with Mrs. Lynn Linton, the novelist; the "Academy" has discovered that "Vernon Lee" is a pseudonym.
68	June 2, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	Received news of the death of Mr. Robinson's father; she is going to hear Sarah Bernhardt.
69	June 16-17, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget
70	June 20-22, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget
71	June 25-27, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	26th: John Sargent has done a sketch of her; a trip on the James in a steam launcher with the Corks; visit from Horatio Brown; saw "Hamlet" and Sarah Bernhardt; 27th: promises to write more often; visit to Mrs. Clifford's where she met Huxley and Leslie Stephen.
72	June 29-30, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	Allen accepted her article on Elizabethan Dramatists; intends to submit her manuscript of "Child in the Vatican" to Satchell; attended a "combination performance" of tragedy, comedy, and melodrama; 30th: the MacCarthys took her to the Houses of Parliament; Longman's refused Otilie; she is encouraging Mary Robinson in her novel-writing.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
73	July 5, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	Visited the Morrises at Hammersmith; went with Mary Robinson to Royal Academy, thought pictures "extremely poor" but liked statue of Teucer; John Sargent gone to Paris; Mary's book received poor reviews; met Lewis Morris at Miss Cobbe's house: "the most utterly repulsive brute I ever beheld"; visited National Gallery and arsenal at Woolwich.
73a
74	July 7-10, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	Went to flower show in Regent Park; met Evelyn Wimbush and Mr. Marston at the Sharp's; people at the grand soiree at the Royal Academy astounded her; 8th: had lunch at the Clifford's house; 9th: claims she cannot get Eugene's book reviewed, as "London literary society is merely a thing shown to me through a grating"; thinks her "sworn admirers" are avoiding her; 10th: went to a dismal party at Pultney; visited the Gosses, Mr. Gosse being "the only nice man I have met in this literary set."
75	July 12-15, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	Will send Eugene's manuscript to Longman's; sent her manuscript of "Belcaro" to Satchell; visited Robert Browning, who is "completely a gentleman"; Mrs. Linton's friends are "far the most impressed about me"; 14th: thinks the British Museum marbles "magnificent" but the gallery itself poor; MacCarthys visited; 15th (from Oxford): the city "so much less mediaeval" than she'd expected; liked Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience."
76	July 18, 1881	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget	Is writing the epilogue to "Belcaro"; met Pater at the Ward's; again refuses to give Mr. Gosse Eugene's book to review, as it would be improper and useless.
77	July 19-20, 23 1881	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget	Evelyn Pickering visited; Violet and Mary Robinson going to dinner at the Pater's; 20th: had a nice visit with Mr. Pater whom she calls "heavy and dull, but agreeable"; 23rd (from London): Pauline de Cargouet invited Mary and Violet to her home in Brittany; sent the end of "Belcaro" to Satchell; lunched with Mrs. Stillman.
78	July 26, 28, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget	Tea at the Clodds' (?) "consisted mainly of philologists and was exceedingly dull"; 28th: Mary Robinson can't go with Violet to Brittany, as Mr. Robinson forbids it.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
79	July 28- August 3, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton	Apologises for infrequency of her letters; dined with Miss Cobbe; surprised that Longman's refused Eugene's manuscript; Oscar Wilde's book very popular and highly praised.
80	July 30, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave for Lambalu, Brittany on Wednesday, August 3.
81	August 3, 1881	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave for France Wednesday; asked Pauline de Cargouet to meet her at St. Malo.
82	August 4, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Servan, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Sea crossing was difficult; she must get to Lambalu by herself.
83	August 4-6, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Servan, France) to Matilda Paget	In St. Servan overnight before going on to Lambalu; anxious for Mary Robinson to stay with them in Florence; 5th (from Dol, France): three hour wait in this "very medieval" town for the train to Lambalu; 6th (from Ste. Melaine): Pauline de Cargouet's home here nice, but everything "dull as ditch water"; intends to work on articles for "Cornhill's Magazine" and "Contemporary Review."
84	August 7, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget	Thinks Pauline de Cargouet is suffering from "dullness" there and finds her neighbors "insupportable."
85	August 10, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget	Pauline de Cargouet seems unhappy to have married Theophile because of loneliness; Pauline has "a curious indifferent, rather depressed manner."
86	August 12, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget	Needs five pounds immediately as her trip to Paris will be expensive; will have to leave Ste. Melaine suddenly if Pauline's baby gets whooping cough.
87	August 14-15, 1881	Violet Paget (Lambalu, France) to Matilda Paget	Pauline de Cargouet's "wretched little baby" still sick; drove to Launar, home of Alice Lamobe (?).
88	August 18, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget	Records itinerary for her trip in France and Italy with Mary Robinson; the Murrays are also visiting the de Cargouets at St. Melaine; went to see the medieval castle at the Chateau de la Hunandagu
89	August 19, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget	May leave for Paris on Tuesday, August 23.
90	August 22, 1881	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget	Is appalled at her mother's suggestion they stay at the Bagni home for October rather than go to Florence; they shouldn't have taken the expensive Casa Bertagna with them; sent her manuscript of "Apollo the Fiddler" to Cornhill's Magazine; 23rd: will send money home; leaves to meet the Robinsons in Paris.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
91	August 26, 1881	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Met Mary Robinson upon arrival there; John Sargent came for dinner.
92	August 27, 1881	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went to the Louvre, then to John Sargent's studio; he did a portrait of Mary Robinson.
93	August 28, 1881	Violet Paget (in France) to Matilda Paget	Is detained for a few hours between train journeys; Mary Robinson has been ill.
94	June 8, 1882	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget	Saw the play "Le Monde ou l'on s'ennuie" with the Sargents; visited the "salon," the Louvre and Luxembourg with John and Emily Sargent; going to Roven tomorrow, then to London Saturday (10th).
94.1	June 10, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is with the Robinsons and is going with them to their country home in the afternoon.
95	June 11, 1882	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence).	Mary Robinson and V.P. visited Stillmans before leaving London; visited at Epsom by the French painter Bertha Newcombe and the actor Forbes-Robertson
96	June 14, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson visited Mullers and met Rotoli there "to whom I proceeded to turn my back"; Willie Sargent visited, a "patronising shy creature"; sent Eugene's manuscript of "The New Medusa" to Elliot Stock; Mr. Stillman and Lisa visited.
97	June 16-17, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Called on the Dicksons and Mrs. Ward, "a tiptop intellectual woman"; dined with the Rosettis and Stillmans where there was a "grand discussion about thrashing brats"; saw John Sargent's pictures at the Academy; 17th: saw "Romeo and Juliet" at the Lyceum.
98	June 21, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Spent the weekend at Epsom; MacColl visited; Violet and Mary Robinson dined at the Gurney's and met there Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Ritchie, Mrs. Ritchie having been Miss Thackery; Elliot Stock willing to publish Eugene's "The New Medusa"; visited British Museum with MacLean; visited, with Mary Robinson, Bertha Thomas and Helen Zimmern.
99	June 22-25, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Robinsons had a dance for 70 people last night; Fischer Unwin, publisher, called, wanting advice on life of Garibaldi; feels she's still obscure as an author; 23rd: Madeline and Gosse visited; went to Mary Robinson's lecture on Lake Poets at Working Women's College; more negotiations with Elliot Stock over Eugene's book; 24th: dined at Leslie Stephen's; 25th: Symonds is not well; she and Mary saw Wagner's "Tristan"

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
100	June 27-28, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Elliot Stock will publish Eugene's "Medusa"; she and Mary Robinson visited Mrs. Clifford; Mrs. Bevington's new book of poems "full of imbecility"; attended party at the Tennants', and an "afternoon" at Mrs. Alma Tadema's; 28th: saw Mr. Browning at Mrs. Sutherland Orr's; visited Mr. Bunting of the "Contemporary Review" at his "shabby genteel house"; Fraser published "Apollo the Fiddler."
101	June 29, July 1, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Siena, Italy)	Called on the Paters who invited her to stay with them on her way to Wales; lunched with Nina Barstow; visited Leslie Stephens and Mrs. Ward; July 1: advises him to omit the Elegy, "which completely lacks interest," from his "Medusa" book.
102	July 3, 1882	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy).	Visited Mrs. Stillman and Mrs. Ward, then joined Robinsons at Epsom; (from London): Mrs. Stillman had taken her to the Morris's house; Emily Sargent will visit tomorrow.
103	July 5-6, 8, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Siena, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson took Emily Sargent to the Academy and Liberty's; Paters, among others, at Robinson's dinner party; feels she has finally been accepted by the Watts, Pater, Stephen, Mrs. Clifford, Maccoll, and the Wards; 6th: Mrs. Muller introduced her to Professor Lankester, "a great big bulldog young man"; 8th: "Magazine of Art" refused her "Blood and Bones" novel; she and Mary going to Pulborough to rest and work. P.S. Mary Robinson to Matilda Paget: Violet not ill; they go to the country to work.
104	July 11, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Leaves for Pulborough in the afternoon; visited Miss Thomas and the Buntings.
105	July 12, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson rented a cottage here.
106	July 13, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Happier in the cottage here than she had been at Gower St.; she is working on portrait art of the Renaissance, Mary on Emily Bronte.
107	July 14, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Will return to Italy soon if Eugene continues to be so ill.
108	July 15, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Is very nice here, but it cannot compare to Italy; Mr. Lemon told of his "very weird ghostly experiences" which "put into my head a sort of story"; they have some problems with the landlady.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
109	July 20, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Real reason for her leaving London was Mrs. Robinson's treatment of her; there was a misunderstanding about a ticket to the Academy and Mrs. Robinson virtually asked her to leave; Mary stood by her throughout the quarrel; Longman refused "Blood and Bones."
110	July 22, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Feels Mary Robinson has grown tired of her parents' literary circle, as "she is growing and it is shrinking"; the quarrel (with the Robinsons) may be advantageous to Mary if it gives her more independence from her parents.
111	July 24, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Talked to Satchell about publishing Eugene's new book; she plans to write on "Art and Evolution," writing the musical with the serious aesthetical articles and submit it to Macmillan; dined at Coates' Farm; wrote "Portrait Art of the Renaissance" for the "Fortnightly."
112	July 26, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Will amend Eugene's manuscript as requested.
113	July 27, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Thanks her for her understanding of the quarrel with the Robinsons; seeks advice about whether she should go directly to the Robinsons to pick up her things there.
114	July 29, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Went to Arundel with Mary Robinson and Emily Callwell; beautiful parks and cathedral there; she leaves for Oxford August 1.
115	July 31, 1882	Violet Paget (Fittleworth, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Needs 20 pounds to go to Wales; it had been very inexpensive for her and Mary Robinson to stay at Pulborough. P.S. Mary Robinson to Matilda Paget: she wished Violet to be her guest at Pulborough, but she refused.
116	August 2, 1882	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Is staying at the Paters' in "one of the prettiest houses I have ever seen."
117	August 3-4, 1882	Violet Paget (Gloster, England and Llandovery, Wales) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Spent the previous day with the Paters in Oxford; found the cathedral there at Gloster "compared with French cathedrals, coarse, clumsy, and uninteresting"; 4th: staying at the small house of her "very worn and not pretty" cousin Adah Hughes.
118	August 5, 1882	Violet Paget (Llanfair, Wales) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Her cousin Adah Hughes reminds her much of Pauline de Cargouet; visited her mother's old house at Middleton; much complicated intrigue among the cousins there, "it all sounds like a horrible mixture of "Wuthering Heights" and "Zola.""

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
119	August 9, 1882	Violet Paget (Llandovery, Wales) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Cornhill published "Botticelli at the Villa Lemmi" manuscript quickly; leaves Wales tomorrow to stay with the Jeffersons at Leamington.
120	August 12, 1882	Violet Paget (Leamington, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Staying with Mary Robinson at the Jefferson's; went to Warwick to train
121	August 13, 1882	Violet Paget (Warwick, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson have rooms in a large 15th or 16th century house which was once a monastery.
122	August 17, 1882	Violet Paget (Warwick, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Will travel from England to Belgium on the 23rd with Mrs. Smillie and go from there to Siena; rowed on the Avon with the Jeffersons; visited Warwick Castle, "the most Faery Queen sort of place I have ever seen"; a Miss Nussey, "Charlotte Bronte's only surviving friend," is criticising Mary Robinson's work on Charlotte Bronte; Mary wrote prologue to "The New Arcadia," but expects no good reviews.
123	August 23, 1882	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Will leave for Belgium with Mrs. Smillie in the afternoon
124	August 24, 1882	Violet Paget (Bruges, Belgium) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Mr. Robinson saw her off in England, "he was very polite and says he is extremely sorry;" she and Mrs. Smillie now take the train to Ghent.
125	August 25, 1882	Violet Paget (in train near Brussels) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Spent two hours sightseeing in Brussels; will make her way through Germany and Italy and arrive at Siena on Wednesday (August 30).
126	August 26, 1882	Violet Paget (in train, just after Koln, Germany) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy).	Spent last night in Cologne; will spend the day travelling through Germany
127	August 26, 1882	Violet Paget (Coblenz, Germany) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Must stay a day in Coblenz with Mrs. Smillie, who isn't well; tomorrow she will go to see the Rhine.
128	August 28, 1882	Violet Paget (Coblenz, Germany) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Found the Rhine "very disappointing as a whole...I would give the whole Rhine for the Avon."
129	August 28, 1882	Violet Paget (Basel, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Siena, Italy)	Travelled all day on the train; will arrive in Florence on the 30th, Siena the following day
130	June 20, 1883	Violet Paget ("Casa Duffy," Florence, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca)	Had a successful journey from Lucca to Florence
131	June 21, 1883	Violet Paget (Milan, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Met the Stillmans at Pistoria; saw Mrs. Callander and Mr. and Mrs. Meser (?) at the station; dinner with the Addisons.
132	June 22, 1883	Violet Paget (Bale, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will arrive in Paris tomorrow night and see John Sargent there.
133	June 22, 1883	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	John Sargent will visit tomorrow; "Of Mario's book, the first story is perfectly splendid, the others very good."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
134	June 23, 1883	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went with John Sargent to the Louvre and met Ben Castillo there; saw John's new studio, "from his having invested in this house, I presume Miss Burckhardt is gone off the horizon;" saw a statue of Venus, "a beautiful and singular thing" which would be a good sonnet subject for Eugene; is going on to Roven, then London.
135	June 25, 1883	Violet Paget (between Dieppe and Newhaven) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Arrived in Roven on the first day of the races there and left because of the crowds; boarded a boat at Dieppe and will arrive in Newhaven, England; John Sargent calls the author Rollinat a "beast without any talent."
136	June 26, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mary Robinson met her at the station, as the Duffys hadn't expected her so early.
137	June 29, 1883	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	"Art Journal" would like poems from Eugene; dined at the Robinson's new house; saw Richard Garnett at the British museum; lunched with Mrs. Ward; talked to Henley about Cecconi's article in the "Magazine of Art"; complicated misunderstanding between the Wards and the Middlemores, MacColl having put Mrs. Ward "into quite a disagreeable position"; visited Mrs. Clifford.
138	June 30, 1885	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Celice (?) arrived and seemed friendly; met Mary de Morgan "of whose odious identity you have heard me speak" at the Barrington's; Mrs. Clifford had a party in her honor; tomorrow she goes to the Paters; finds the "old literary clique" boring, longs for Alice Calander and John Sargent; her friends have literary successes, "alas, alas, for "Miss Brown.""
139	June 30, 1883	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went to tea at the Bunting's, where "the atmosphere of strict morality is perfectly choking"; rather bored and dislikes London; met Fagan at the Br. Museum; saw Mrs. Caldecott and Agnes Clarke; party tonight at the Robinson's; will go with Evelyn Pickering to meet Miss Barrington, "who writes on art"; will take her book "Miss Brown" to Macmillan.
140	July 2, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Going to Hampton Court; saw Mr. Theodore Watts; sends manuscript of "Miss Brown" to Macmillan.
141			Re-entry of 140.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
142	July 2, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	A man "very much after Mary Robinson" took them rowing; Evelyn Pickering took her to lunch at Mrs. Barrington's, " a rumpled, scrumpled little brown paper woman"; in his studio, G.F. Watts talked to her about her "Portrait Art" article; went on to Sir F. Leighton's house, "the 8th wonder of the world"; at Mrs. Clifford's met Fred Macmillan, the painter Alfred Parsons, Mrs. Orr, and Mrs. Carr
143	July 6, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went to the McGurneys' and talked about ghosts; she and Mary Robinson went to tea with "the funny little aesthetic painter" Holiday, and met there Annie Cobden-Sanderson and Mrs. Morris; has a busy, full schedule of invitations, but Mary is not well.
144	July 7, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has been socializing with Lalia (?), Mrs. Dickson, Robinsons, Barringtons, and Evelyn Pickering; is trying to find a publisher for Eugene
145	July 9, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Dined at the Barringtons' with Evelyn Pickering; talked to Theodore Watts, an admirer of Eugene's poetry, about meter and how Eugene could improve his "monotony in the pacing of the caesura"; greatly enjoyed a visit with the Monkhouses.
146	July 11, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	"The Academy" publishing her paper on Mario Pratesi's book; visit to Leyland's house to see Rossetti paintings, which she thought "not merely ill-painted and worse modelled, but coarse and repulsive"; went with Bella Duffy to the Buntings'; visits to art galleries to see Rossetti paintings; dinner with the Stephens.
147	July 13, 1883	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Send manuscript of "Apollo and Marsgas" to Henley.
148	July 14, 1883	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Visited the Gurneys; travelling to Epsom with Mary Robinson; Adah Hughes will be going to Italy.
149	July 15, 1883	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went with Evelyn Pickering to see the artist de Morgan in his studio; then went to de Morgan's mother and sister--"I never saw anything odder"--who believed they saw ghosts about; Mrs. De Morgan "felt sure I must be a ghost seer from my expression"; saw Mr. Graham's collection of Burne Jones and Rossetti paintings; lunched with the Gurneys.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
150	July 18, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Henley rejected "Apollo and Marsgas"; went with Mary Robinson to meet the Ellises, of the Ellis and White publishing company; will offer Ellis the manuscript of "Euphorion"; feels writing fiction not lucrative for her; went to Salvation Army meeting, which she found "utterly trivial and vulgar."
151	July 20, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Huish interested in Eugene's sonnets; Duffys gave a big party; lunched with MacColl
152	July 22, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will not visit the Paters at Oxford; she and Mary Robinson may go to Kent; lunched at the Dicksons'; visited Mrs. Clifford; supper with the Hamleys, "unwriting literary people."
153	July 27, 1883	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Needs money before she and Mary Robinson can go to Kent; feels the Clifford set "claims" her, but the Watts, Marston, etc., "don't care a rap about me"; has been working in the Print Room and the Eglin Room at the British Museum; visited the "pedantic" Mrs. Bunting.
154	July 29, 1883	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Sent photos to Eugene; leaves with Mary Robinson tomorrow for Tenterden, Kent
155	July 30, 1883	Violet Paget (Canterbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Stopped here on the way to Tenterden; Caterbury "has something of Oxford, but with more old houses."
156	August 1, 1883	Violet Paget (Canterbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will stay in Caterbury for a week before going to Tenterden.
157	August 3, 1883	Violet Paget (Canterbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson read Eugene's new sonnets; Alfred Austin wants to publish her paper "Transformation of Chivalric Poetry" anonymously, as her signature is connected with ideas which are "scandalizing to the readers of the "National Review."
158	August 5, 1883	Violet Paget (Canterbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	French Jesuits have set up a college there.
159	August 6, 1883	Violet Paget (Canterbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Cavalry men stationed in Caterbury make streets there "very animated"; went to service at the Cathedral; tomorrow she and Mary Robinson go to Sandwich.
160	August 8, 1883	Violet Paget (Tenterden, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Tenterden is "a very dead little place"; asked Austin to return her article, "Transformation of Chivalric Poetry" as he was putting too many restrictions on it.
161	August 9, 1883	Violet Paget (Tenterden, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Despite the Coltons' recommendation of Tenterden, she finds it a "great fraud"; will go to see the Fishers at Midhurst; has just begun a paper for Escott; Marston's book being published by Stock.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
162	August 11, 1883	Violet Paget (Tenterden, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Austin will publish manuscript "Transformations of Chivalric Poetry" signed "V. Paget"; will go to Midhurst about the 25th.
163	August 11, 1883	Violet Paget (Tenterden, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will stay in Tenterden another 1/2 week; met a Mrs. Redmund, "like a woman out of G. Eliot's books," who took her and Mary Robinson on a drive; Mary is reading "The Mill on the Floss" aloud to her; has been exploring an abandoned farmhouse.
164	August 14, 1883	Violet Paget (Tenterden, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	May go to Rye on the 18th; will be in Italy in a month.
165	August 16, 1883	Violet Paget (Tenterden, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson go to Rye in two days; will stay briefly with the Robinsons before leaving England; took the landlady's niece to the circus; rescued the cat from drowning.
166	August 18, 1883	Violet Paget (Rye, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Found good lodgings there.
167	August 19, 1883	Violet Paget (Rye, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Rye is "one of the most picturesque places I have ever seen"; drove to Rye harbour; going to Winchelsea which Baring Gould wrote about in "Mehalah." [Includes envelope and two paper dolls, described as "Mary's sister Helen effigy of Alfred Austin."]
168	August 21, 1883	Violet Paget (Rye, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)
169	August 23, 1883	Violet Paget (Rye, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will go to the Fishers at Midhurst on Saturday or Tuesday; drove through the marsh to the seaside; many sailors angry at new regulation which has condemned many boats as not seaworthy
170	August 28, 1883	Violet Paget (Midhurst, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Fishers live in a beautiful house; went to see the ruins of the Cowdray (?) estate; saw a collection of Vandykes at Petworth Place; she and Mary Robinson go to Epsom on Thursday (30th).
171	September 1, 1883	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will stop to see Amiens and Riems on the way to Italy.
172	September 2-3, 1883	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Escott won't say yet if he'll take her article; Nencion doesn't want her article on the "Outdoor Renaissance"; has applied to do a biography of Mme. D'Arblay for W.H. Allen's Eminent Women Series; drove to Box Hill; going to meet Mr. Fisher at the British Museum Print Room.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
173	September 5, 1883	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave for Amiens on Sunday (9th) and meet the Lemons at Riems; will write a biography of the Countess of Albany for W.H. Allen for fifty pounds.
174	September 6, 1883	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Travel plans have changed; Mrs. Robinson doesn't want her to go to Amiens and Riems alone, so she shall go with the Lemons.
175	September 8, 1883	Violet Paget (between Bologne and Amiens, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had a bad crossing; signed agreement with W.H. Allen for biography of Countess of Albany.
176	June 4, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	John Sargent had his "famous nominee tea party" to which V.P., the two Robinson girls and Arthur Lemon each invited four nominees; chance meeting between Lady Colin Campbell and Mrs. Callander "greatly added to the dramatic interest" of the party.
177	June 8, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)
178	June 8, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will visit the Symonds with Mary Robinson; lunched with Miss Wakefield; dined at the Wards'; MacColl, Garnett, and Maclean visited; saw an exhibition of Whistler sketches; party at the Sharps' with "frumpy women and frowsty literary people"; will dine with Leslie Stephen.
179	June 10, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Visited Mrs. Clifford who "has a screw loose, for surely not even literary London could produce such manners"; has had many invitations since she got to London from Rossetti, Miss Wakefield, Mrs. Callander; went with Mabel Robinson to Beauington Atkinson, a "rather seedy art critic."
180	June 13, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Visits from Miss Hamley, Mrs. Rossetti, Mrs. Hueffer, Mrs. Stillman; Maclean very depressed about death of Mme. Meyer; "two pictures of the year" are by Burne Jones and Whistler; saw William Rossetti, Sharp, and MacColl at Mrs. Augusta Webster's homecoming; is tired of the "literary frumpdom" in London.
181	June 16, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Heard Manning preach; met Henry James at National Museum; "Euphorian" seems selling well."
182	June 19, 1884	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying with the Paters; Mrs. Augusta Webster astounded to discover Violet Paget is Vernon Lee; Clara Pater took her to Christ Church; the rising poet is Michael Field,

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			supposed to be a woman."
183	June 20-21, 1884	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Enjoys staying with the Paters and each afternoon has a "long, private audience" with Pater; Mr. Creighton comes for dinner; will see the Campbells and the Wards before going to Epsom; 21st: Mrs. Cadele and Miss Frasar just died; "St. James" gave "Euphorion" a terrible review.
184	June 24, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Met Professor Jenkin, "a clever, lively, opinonative, paradoxical man," at the Campbells'; suspects Middlemore wrote the bad review of "Euphorion" in St. James Gazette, but he denies it; visited Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Barrington; party at the Tennants'; Nencioni's review of "Euphorion" "very good."
185	June 26, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had an "odd medley" of visitors: Evelyn Pickering, Ellen Clerke, Mrs. Callander, Maclean, John Sargent, Lemon, and Henry James; then all went to a party at the Tennants'; a "better letter" soon; has read and liked very much his "Spissimus" (sp?).
186	June 29, 1884	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Visited Mrs. Fitzgerald, "literature and metaphysics smitten, this clever, vain, half crazy little woman"; with Mabel Robinson saw "Glargebrook's people at Harrow"; dinner at the Gurneys', the MacColls; may offer manuscript of "Miss Brown" to Eliott Stock.
187	July 2, 1884	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Saw the Ellis' Rossettis at Epsom; Blackwood gives no answer on publication of "Miss Brown"; may do Beckford for the "English Men of Letters" series.
188	July 11, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Good reviews of "Euphorion" by Pall Mall, British Quarterly; Unwin may put "Euphorion" into one volume cheap edition; Mme. Villair is visiting; Agnes Clarke is "grinding away at astronomical biographies"; had large tea party where Theodore Watts and Henry James complimented her on "Euphorion."
189	July 14, 1884	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Review in the "Spectator" of "Euphorion"; will see Mrs. Fleming Jenkin and the Stephens tomorrow.
190	July 16, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Cholera epidemic prevents entrance to Italy, so Mme. Villari can't get back; visited Mrs. Dickson; dined at the Stephens' along with

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			Sidney Calvin, Cyril Flower, and Mrs. Velly.
191	July 19, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	"Academy" had a "jocose but good review" of "Euphorion"; her old friend Sir Frederick Burton visited; Oswald Crawford visited, "I fancy he is rather a swell"; dined with the MacCarthys and met Lord Randolph Churchill, whom she thought very feeble and factious"; saw Sarah Bernhardt in Sardons "Fedora."
192	July 23, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Won't return to Italy until the quarantine is over; Mary Robinson read and corrected Eugene's new poem; John Sargent brought Paul Bourget ("flabby and blond") to visit; went with Mary to see Mr. Watts; bad reaction to her flu vaccination; Unwin ecstatic over the success of "Euphorion"; Mary finishing her biography of Marguerite de Navarre.
193	July 26, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Blackwood will publish "Miss Brown"; will stay at the Robinson's London house until mid-August and work on rewriting "Miss Brown."
194	July 30, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Told Blackwood clearly that she wouldn't agree to alter "Miss Brown"; Contemporary Review did a not "very grand" review of "Euphorion" but the Buntings "strewed my path with flowers, that is, with invitations to write for the Contemporary"; will stay with Emily Ford at Leeds; has decided to dedicate "Miss Brown" to Henry James.
195	August 3, 1884	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is working on the end of Miss Brown; will press Elliot Stock for an answer (concerning a manuscript of Eugene).
196	August 5, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Returns Eugene's poem which Mary Robinson had been making; she and Mary staying alone in Robinson's house; will return to Italy when quarantine is lifted, perhaps with Mary.
197	August 8, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Alternative plans for her return to Italy: if cholera still around, will come alone on 26th or 27th; if cholera gone, will come with Mary Robinson mid-September; discussions with Blackwood about American rights to "Miss Brown"; Stock will decide on Eugene's manuscript.
198	August 11-12, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Plans for returning to Italy still uncertain; 12th: went with Mary Robinson to Hampton Court; will go to the Fords in Leeds on 14th; Mary has completed her book on Marguerite

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			de Valvis and has good reviews; finished revision of "Miss Brown."
199	August 15, 1884	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying at the Fords' house (Adel Grange) near Leeds; sky is constantly grey with smoke from the city; tomorrow goes to Haworth; will be glad to leave there.
200	August 19, 1884	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Discussing with Mrs. Barstow and Mrs. Smilie the possibility of returning to Italy with them; went to see the moors at Haworth.
201	August 22, 1884	Violet Paget (E. Grinstead, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson staying with Mrs. Paynter there; Mary will not return to Italy with her
202	August 24, 1884	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Only way open to Italy is via Vienna; may travel there with Mme. Villari.
203	August 28, 1884	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	As cholera epidemic is spreading, advises her family to move to a secluded villa in Florence; Elliot Stock will make agreement about Eugene's manuscript; MacCarthys expected to visit; had "extremeley touching" letter from Mrs. Callander; spiritualisit friend of the Fords tells of meeting an Ancient Briton on the moors.
204	August 31, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Strongly urges her family to move to Florence before the grape harvest; will travel to Italy alone, as other arrangements fell through, and "I am surely old enough to take care of myself."
205	September 2, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Relates her itinerary from London to Florence; Elliot Stock will risk thirty six pounds on Eugene's book.
206	September 9, 1884	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Did not leave for Italy alone, as she discovered quarantine would soon be lifted; will arrive at Florence Monday (15th); Watts will review Eugene's new book; glad they have gone to Florence
207	September 13, 1884	Violet Paget (on train near Amiens, France) to matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Finally left England, despite the Robinsons' objections to her travelling alone; will arrive in Florence on Tuesday (16th).
208	June 21, 1885	Violet Paget (between Alexandria and Turin, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Arrived in Florence and met the Duffys; Bella Duffy wants Frankie Forbes Robertson (Eugene's reader) to meet a Miss Coray, an art student.
209	June 23, 1885	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Pauline de Cargouet and husband met her in Paris; is expecting John Sargent for dinner.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
210	June 25, 1885	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Fears John Sargent "is getting rather into the way of painting people too tense"; lunched with John and Miss Burkhardt; John sends advice to Frankie Forbes Robertson to paint only in black and white; will go to England tomorrow.
211	June 27, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mary and Mabel Robinson met her when she arrived in London; Alice Callander arrives tonight; Campbells liked "Miss Brown," but "there seems a strange lull of invitations."
212			No entry.
213	July 3, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Robinsons are giving a dinner party for her; went with Mabel Robinson to tea at the Robertsons' studio and met Mrs. Jopling; has had invitations from the Dicksons, the Stephens; went to an exhibition of MacLean paintings; will call on Miss Dunn and Miss Osborne, "two nice, semi-artistic old maids" and Mrs. John Richard Green, "widow of the historian"; Austin of "National Review" will accept "The Value of the Ideal: a Conversation"
214	July 6, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Lunched with the Dicksons; observed Jack's (?) comments on Leslie Stephen: "It is amusing to see these different classes working at each other"; visited Mrs. Fitzgerald who talked on metaphysics, love and marriage amid a large, unknown crowd at Mrs. Jopling's; talked to Lord Campbell and the Robertsons; visited Mrs. Elliott.
215	July 9, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Agrees with Mrs. R.J. Green that the troubled times ahead will hinder the production of any great literary work in England; "Pall Mall" being censored for printing obscene material; mixed reactions among her friends to "Miss Brown," but "I have got the better of any intention to give me the cold shoulder"; attended studio party at Tristram Ellis'.
216	July 11-12, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Stock has turned down Eugene's book; Maclean not doing well with his paintings; 12th (from Epsom): arrived here last night; went with Alice Callander to a meeting of the Psychical Research Society and from there to at large party at the Jeunes'; only Rossettis and Watts still angry about "Miss Brown"; visited Mr. Newton, director of antiques at British Museum.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
217	July 15, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went with Mabel Robinson over to Bartholomew's Hospital; dined with Lewis Campbell and saw there Watts who seemed cold toward her; visits expected from Miss MacCarthy, Crawford, Henry James, and Forbes Robertson; will settle with Unwin over "Baldwin."
218	July 16,18, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Unwin will publish "Baldwin" and wants her to do a history of the Italian Republics; F.R (Forbes Robertson) visited, "a boasting, fulsome, melodramatic swaggerer"; Arthur Lemon came; lunched with Emily Ford; Professor Jenkin died; 18th: saw Sarah Bernhardt in "Theodora"; Alice Callander leaves on 20th; Stillman and Pater candidates for Oxford Slade Professorship; feels visiting England after May 1 useless, as everyone is leaving.
219	July 19-21, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Alice Callander returns to Wales; went to Coombe near Kingston to see Flekher's "Faithful Shepherdess" performed outdoors, arranged by Lady A. Campbell, "a very clever, delightful, fantastic wayward creature"; 20th: Lucy (?) came for lunch; 21st: will go to see Mrs. Barstow; is writing a paper on the play at Coombe and Sarah Bernhardt for the "Fanfulla."
220	July 23, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Unwin has unexpectedly lowered his price for "Baldwin"; just discovered that a George Moore had attempted to include bits of "Miss Brown" in an anthology of "improper passages," but Mary Robinson prevented it; trying to atone for having ignored "Miss Brown"; will be staying with Mary for 10 days.
221	July 25, 1185	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Shocked to hear of Mrs. Dickson's death; Unwin has returned to original agreement about "Baldwin"; lunched with Cotter Morrison who urges her to spend as much time as possible in England; Henry James suggests she "never lose an opportunity of seeing anything of any kind"; can't see the play at Coombe again as it's too expensive; was introduced to Mrs. Andrew Lang; Blackwood would see another story of hers.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
222	July 27, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mary Robinson is weak and having fainting fits, but is writing many verses; visited Mrs. Clifford whom she finds "interesting and cordial"; talked to Mr. Tilton at the Barrington's about the Coombe play; feels Mr. Newton will be a useful friend; John Sargent visited; Andrew Lang wrote uncomplimentary article on "Miss Brown" in "St James' Gazette."
223	July 29, 1885	Violet Paget (Cambridge, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Came to Cambridge, as Mary Robinson was suddenly ill and she (V.P.) was in the way there; the Langs sent apologies for the review of "Miss Brown," "I think both their behaviour remarkably nice"; staying with the Creightons at Cambridge which "gives no impression in the sense that Oxford does, but it has charming things; saw John Sargent and Mrs. Green yesterday.
224	August 1, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is at Epsom with Mary Robinson for 3 days; visited Mrs. Callander; the latest problems with Frankie Forbes Robertson stem from her discontent at Bagni di Lucca; Frankie has a reputation of being "very fast"; Mrs. Callander intends to pursue literature seriously and work at her novel.
225	August 1, 1885	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	The Creightons took her to the cathedral at Ely; invitations to dine with Mrs. Clifford and with Mr. Newton where she shall meet Lady Strangford; Mabel Robinson thinks Henry James a "vulgar American," which "vexed me, as this abusing of my friends is quite a habit"; may go to Venice for ten days; she and Mary Robinson visit the Austins on the 19th.
226	August 5, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is distressed about all the problems Frankie Forbes Robertson has caused at Bagni; is making plans for a trip to Venice; Henry James visited; met Lady Strangford at Mr. Newton's and found her "sniffy to an incredible degree"; will dine with Mrs. Clifford.
227	August 6, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will return to Italy at once if the problems with Frankie Forbes Robertson have "left you both morally ill and so sad and desolate"; intends to make Alice Callander aware of the entire situation.
228	August 8, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Talked to the Robertsons about the problems Frankie had caused at Bagni; Frankie's sister, Mrs. Bromley, apologised for Frankie's behaviour; Frankie will be brought home from Florence.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
229	August 10, 1885	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mrs. Callander's novel shows "delicate and charming conception of character,...if only she could learn to write"; next spring will work on the 15th century novel; Mabel Robinson says Frankie Forbes Robertson's bad conduct not surprising.
230	August 13, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Saw Mrs. Clifford, Colvin and the publisher Tuer at MacColl's; at Mrs. Von Glehn's, met the painter Richmond and the poet MacKail; Paters have moved into a nearby house; Herkomer won Slade Professorship; Robert Browning showed her "the real 'Book' of the 'Ring and the Book.'"
231	August 17, 1883	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	In two days goes with Mary Robinson to Ashford; has been buying new clothes; Bella Duffy will go to Florence in September. [Includes poem by Mary Robinson called "The Siren."]
232	August 21, 1885	Violet Paget (Swinford, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson staying with Alfred Austin "who spouts a sort of utilitarian toryism"; visited Goddington, the 17th century manor house: "I think I shall use it up in a ghost story I am projecting"; asks her mother to save the August 16th edition of "Fanfulla della Domenica" containing her article on the play at Coombe.
233	August 25, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	The visit with the Austins was very pleasant, as there was a "great difference between their whole manner and that of ordinary literary folk"; Mrs. Callander intends to introduce her to her friends in Venice and she has letters of introduction from Mme. Villari to two other women there.
244	August 27, 1885	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave England in about a week; saw the Clarkes; Henry James will introduce her to two women in Venice; expects A.W. Benn will arrive to announce his engagement; Austin has "hanking after passing my Renaissance novel thro' the 'National'."
245	August 28, 1885	Violet Paget (Epsom, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Reports of Benn's engagement were false--he may visit them at Bagni; heard that Frankie Forbes Robertson is now staying at a convent; will leave London on the 5th, travel through France and arrive in Venice on the 9th; her articles out in "Contemporary Review" ("A Dialogue on Novels") and "National Review" ("The Value of the Ideal: A Conversation").

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
246	September 1, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went with Mary Robinson to visit Lalla Dickson, who gave her (V.P.) an old portrait of Matilda Paget; everyone but the Rossettis "has got over "Miss Brown."
247	September 3, 1885	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Sends Eugene a copy of Palgrave's "Golden Treasury"; Norman Robertson came to apologize for his sister Frankie's behaviour; dined with the MacCarthys, where "little Justin impressed me painfully"; went to say goodbye to Alice Callander.
248	September 5, 1885	Violet Paget (Amiens, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	The Robinsons saw her off from London; had lunch with Miss Burkhardt and John Sargent at his studio; will visit the Lemons, the Barringtons and Frankie Forbes Roberston's parents.
249	September 7, 1885	Violet Paget (Lucerne, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mrs. Duffy and Bella Duffy met her at the station there; visited the cathedral at Bale during a stopover there; "Contemporary Review" paid her "by anticipation."
250	September 8, 1885	Violet Paget (Milan, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Trip from Lucerne to Milan was pleasant; being back in Italy is a relief, as she knows "how to tackle the people"; will arrive in Florence on 25th or 26th; hasn't yet been paid for articles in "Fanfulla" and "Fracassa."
251	September 9, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has found a decent hotel room there; visited St. Mark's, "far away the loveliest place in the world," and a fruit market; Venice has "six times more of Italy than Florence, even than Siena."
252	September 11, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Most of the people to whom she had letter of introduction are out of town; met Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, American friends of John Sargent and Henry James, "these sort of Americans, who shudder at Howells, look up to James as a sort of patron saint of cosmopolitan refinement"; will return to Florence on the 25th, as Venice is expensive.
253	September 13, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Austin has finally sent payment for her last article; her neighbors in the hotel know some of her friends in London; saw Horatio Brown yesterday.
254	September 14, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will dine with the Curtises; Layards have returned to town
255	September 16, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	The Curtises are kind to her, but she is very much on her own and does not have "H. Brown or young Curtis to pilot me about"; Curtises told her a story about an Italian hero which could be material for a ballad.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
256	September 18, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Hopes there is no delay in her return trip to Florence, as she doesn't want to stay in Venice until the 1st.
257	September 19, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is tired of sightseeing and ready to do some work; called on Lady Layard who has "a certain indifference to humbler mortals"; the Curtises entertain her frequently.
258	September 22, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will return to Florence on Saturday, the 26th; is anxious to be home as "one can't always feel up to the imaginative excitement necessary" for sightseeing; went to Chioggia by steamer; upcoming parties at the Bronsons' and Curtises'.
259	September 23, 1885	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will return to Florence Friday evening, as cases (of cholera?) are spreading, and she is anxious to get South; spent a dreary evening with Mrs. Bronson.
260	June 3, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying there with the Robinsons; had an "admirable crossing"; is going to Miss Wakefield's concert.
261	June 6, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has engagements with the Stephens, Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. von Glehn, Alice Callander, Browning, and Mrs. Jeune; the Paters and Lizzie Sharp called; with Mabel Robinson, visited the Raffaloviches, "some eccentric people...in a fashionable artistic sort of milieu"; went to Mrs. Hancock's party--"I never bored myself more in a frowstier lost; has "boring" reviews in "The Pall Mall" and the "Academy."
262	June 8, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had lunch with Mrs. Green who displays "hospitality of attention, not merely, as usual, of food"; Mabel Robinson attended the debate on the Irish Bill; visited Alice Callander; will go to Coombe to see "Lady Archie" Campbell; Blackwood wants to publish her "Oke of Okehurst"; lunched with Mary Wakefield.
263	June 10, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	At the party there last night, "I saw mainly H. James, John, and Miss Burckhardt...Miss Hamley, Mrs. Stillman, and Miss Wakefield"; had called on Mrs. von Glehn and Mr. Watts who has just done a painting sufficient "to place him as a really imaginative artist"; will lunch with Mrs. Jeune and go to a concert with John Sargent, Mary Robinson, and Miss Burckhardt.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
264	June 13, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went with Mrs. Green to the Youngs' for dinner; called on Lady Welby, Miss Tennant, the DeHoghtons; lunched with Cross; Oswald Crawford called; will stay with the Paters when the Robinsons leave.
265	June 16, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Sent clippings of reviews from the "Athenaeum" and "Academy"; will lunch with Lady Wolseley on Friday; lunched with Mary Wakefield and Marion Terry, then spent the weekend at Epsom; visited Alice Callander; went to a Wagner concert with Anne Callwell and the Lemons.
266	June 19, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	On Thursday, went to Bloomsbury and called on Miss Levy, Mrs. Thursfield, Mr. Newton, the Wards, and Mrs. Rossetti; lunched with the Wolseleys and some disagreeable people; dined with M. Wakefield, "an appalling feast"; called on Miss Browning, who had been ill, and Mr. Browning gave her some flowers.
277	June 21-22, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Book by Alma Tadema's daughter well-written but an imitation of "Wuthering Heights"; has been suffering from neuralgia; has visited the Stillmans, the DeHoghtons, Lady Welby, Mrs. Linton, Helen Zimmern; 22nd: met Maud White, "a rather famous composer of fashionable songs" at Miss Wakefield's; had a nice lunch with the deHoghtons; Lady Welby a "delicate, sickly, spiritual, very paintable woman,...metaphysical to the backbone."
288	June 22-23, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Lady Archie Campbell, in a scene which left V.P. "with a strong sense of the New Arabian Nights," insisted she (V.P.) send her article "Perigot" immediately to Knowles for inclusion in July ed. Of "Nineteenth Century" in order to "humble that horrid little Austin" who could promise no publication date for the article; 23rd: next morning Bunting, of "Contemporary Review," said he'd publish the article in his August issue.
289	June 26, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Dined with the Wolseleys; went with Paters and Robinsons to the Academy; visied an eccentric friend of George Eliot; called on Marion Terry; Mrs. Stillman took her and Mary Robinson to Hamilton Aide's rooms where they again met Lady Archie Campbell; went with Lady Archie to see Knowles of "Nineteenth Century" who begged for the "Perigot" article.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
290	June 29, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went to Epsom instead of to Coombe as Lady Archie Campbell had an unexpected visit from her sister-in-law; dined at the Wolseleys' along with the Archbishop of Canterbury; saw Fancy, Bertha Newcombe, and Phyllis Ellis at Epsom who, "gave me the sort of sequel to "Miss Brown"; will visit the Myers at Camberley.
291-299			No entries.
300	July 2, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Told Knowles of "Nineteenth Century" she would rather have "Perigot" appear in the Contemporary Review; dined with the Crawleys; went with Mabel Robinson to hear Ulster Protestants talk about Home Rule; visited Mary Wakefield, Mrs. Green and Miss Chapman, author of the "New Godiva"; has elaborate travelling plans for the next month.
301	July 8, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Lately has had dull dinners wit the George Macmillans and Mrs. Orr; Mary Robinson asked Alice Callander to lunch; at Henry James' flat, met Mr. Lowell, "who told some excellent ghost stories about buccaneers in the style of Washington Irving."
302	July 10, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Invitations from Lady Wolseley, Lady Welby and Mary Wakefield to various parties; went with Mary Robinson to dinner at Newton's; Lady Archie Campbell "is going to be of much, much more use to me than I ever dreamed of"; while travelling will stay with the Paters, the Stillmans and the Wakefields.
303	July 13, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Spent the weekend at Epsom; is not invited to the Rawlinsons' party because Mrs. Morris (whom she upset by putting her in "Miss Brown") will be there; American reviews say "Baldwin" supposed to be about her relationship with Pater--"that would indeed be a thrilling tale!"
304	July 15, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Met Julian Story and Mrs. Mason at Henry James' house; after dining with Unwin went to see "a miserable adaptation by Wills" of Faust; called on Browning and his sister and saw Gosse; going to the Macmillans' "boring garden party"; revised part of "A Phantom Lover."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
305	July 20, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying with the Paters, to whom she read the proofs of "A Phantom Lover"; she and Mary Robinson visited Sharp; to the Robinsons' "literary tea drinking" came the Paters, James, Thomas Hardy, and others; Mrs. Mason will take her to the Coombe play at Wimbledon.
306	July 22, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	At the Paters' dinner party, met three agreeable young men of the "fashionable Bohemian element"; went to the Coombe play which was "a fearful falling off from last year."
307	July 25, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has left the Paters' house and is staying with the Stillmans; Hamilton Aide and Alfred Austin have asked her to visit; saw Mary Robinson at the play at Wimbledon; will visit Lady Wolseley.
308	July 28, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will go to the Wakefields' house on the 31st; met Mr. Edward Arnold who wants her to write for his new magazine; spent yesterday with the Wolseley family, "who seem so fond and proud of each other."
309	August 1, 1886	Violet Paget (Kendal, England) to Matilda Paget	Is staying at the Stillmans' "huge, cockney, gothic, excessively grandiose" house; Miss Herbert at Tynemouth wants her to visit on the 6th.
310	August 4, 1886	Violet Paget (Kendal, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went hiking in the hills with Mary Wakefield, who "is remarkably intelligent and very goodnatured, and altogether as queer a creature as one can meet"; enjoys herself more at the Wakefields' than at Emily Ford's, "despite all the aspirations of her soul."
311	August 7, 1886	Violet Paget (Northumberland, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca)	Is in the Northumbrian moors, stayin with Miss Herbert and the Thursfields; she and Mary Wakefield went out driving every day of her stay at the Wakefields' house; read manuscript of "Medea da Carpi" to Mary Wakefield and will submit it to Edward Arnold's magaine; Roberts of Boston will pay ten pounds for "Oke."
312	August 10, 1886	Violet Paget (Tynemouth, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Came from Alston to Tynemouth with the Thursfields, Miss Herbert and Mr. Woods; the Tyne River polluted and hideous.
313	August 13, 1886	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is visiting Emily Ford; during her stay with the Herberts and Thursfields a parson took her to see old, dilapidated houses, "had I but the story, I have got background for five and twenty ghosts"; will travel around England, staying with various friends, until she goes to Venice on September 4th or 5th; Arnold has accepted "Medea" for the new magazine.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
314	August 15, 1886	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Encloses an "extraordinary epistle" from Adah Hughes, apparently objecting to the fact that some characters in "Miss Brown" and "The Countess of Albany" were imitations of Adah's relatives; has written to Alice (Callander?) and awaits a reply to settle her travelling plans.
315	August 18, 1886	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will not visit Alice Callander in Wales; on 23rd or 24th will stay with the Stillmans; Emily Ford took her to "a club for millwomen" where she talked about Italy; these millwomen were to her "quite unlike my idea of English lower classes"; with Emily Ford's cousin, Wolf, toured a factory and observed the terrible working conditions.
316	August 22, 1886	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Considers her own story "very much better" than Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll"; will visit the Stillmans, then the Austin's; will travel to Venice with the Wakefields, Terry and the Curtises; met a Dr. Allbut upon whom George Eliot is said to have modelled Lydgate in "Middlemarch", but "I am sufficient of a novelist to understand the value of such sayings."
317	August 23, 1886	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Requests all her letters be sent to Robinsons' or Stillmans'.
318	August 25, 1886	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Told Adah Hughes she was being overly sensitive in being offended by "Miss Brown"; Fishers have invited her for the same days she will be with the Austins; is determined to elave for Venice or Lucca on the 8th of September; is going to see Hamilton Aide; saw her "Phantom Lover" being sold--"I felt celebrated!"
319	August 28, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had an enjoyable visit to Hamilton Aide's house in Ascot; she has, for Aide,"the double attraction of being a demi-semi lion and the friend of Mrs. Stillman"; "Oke" is "flaring about on all the bookstalls of the kingdom"; will go to the Austins on September 1.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
320	August 31, 1886	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave England September 4, as that's when the Wakefield-Terry party wants to go; may be able to see Mary Robinson at Como; is annoyed that the Austins have invited Mallock to visit at the same time she does.
321	September 3, 1886	Violet Paget (Kent, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave tomorrow for Venice with Dover Wakefield, Marion Terry, and Evelyn Pickering; looks forward to returning to Italy; Mallock, who "cares only for people in the peerage" was there: "I never saw a more sunless creature"; has begun a ghost story for Unwin's annual.
322	September 4, 1886	Violet Paget (Amiens, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mr. DeMorgan is accompanying them; "excellent crossing."
323	September 8, 1886	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is glad to be back in Italy "for all my interest in England, this is my country"; cholera in Venice is sporadic, would like to invite Miss Wakefield and Marion Terry to Casa Bertagna.
324	September 11, 1886	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will spend the rest of her stay in Venice with Mrs. Curtis; Mary Robinson s enjoying Davos; will be home in a week.
325	September 13, 1886	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is delighted to be staying with the Curtises, "this is Venice; the other's merely Cook's Touristdom"; will stay at Mme. Pisani's villa on the way to Bologna.
326	September 16, 1886	Violet Paget (Milan, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is safely in Milan
327	June 2, 1887	Violet Paget (Bale, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Met Amy (?) in Milan; had a comfortable journey by way of Lucerne to Bale; leaves for Paris tomorrow.
328	June 3, 1887	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mme. Poynter asked her to dinner; is comfortably situated there; waits to hear from John Sargent.
329	June 4, 1887	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	With Mlle. Read, saw an exhibit in the Rue de Seze; Miss Poynter took her to a lecture on the Gospels at the College de France; boring party at Miss Read's; "literary mediocrity is the same all the world over"; dined with the Panniers; went to the Salon with John and Ralph Carter; Mlle. Read intoduced her to Mme. Ackerman, an "old lady of insipid conversation."
330	June 7-8, 1887	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mlle. Read introduced her to the Hayems; wishes to send Mme. Hayem a copy of "Miss Brown" and Mr. Pannier a photo of Botticelli's "Primavera"; Masson called; has several invitaions for when she arrives in England; ran into Mrs. Eliot, who persists in attempts to establish a friendship with her.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
331	June 9, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Met Mary Robinson upon arrival in England
332	June 11, 1887	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Enjoys the freedom of staying alone in lodgings; Robinsons had many people in to see her; has had very many invitations from various friends; Unwin just published "Juvenilia"; has seen Browning, who "treated me like a long lost grandchild."
333	June 13, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Went with Miss Grace Black and Papafava to a socialist conference where "Stepniak the Nihilist" and Champion were present; called on the Gosses, Stephens, Edward Arnold, Mrs. Hardy; visited with Mrs. Jeune and Tottie Pater; with Mary Robinson, dined with Lady Dorothy Nevill, "a sceptical, ironical 18th century woman"; the party at Lady Nevill's "one of the pleasantest parties I have ever been to."
334	June 17-18, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Called on Gurney, Alice Callander, and many others in Bloomsbury; Mrs. Stillman and Mary Wakefield called; 19th: went to Lady Shrewsbury's where everyone treated her as if she were "a governess come after a place"; Miss Black took her to a meeting of the socialist Fabian Society.
335	June 21, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mrs. Jeune had "prepared a party of socialists" to meet her, so she talked with Stepniak, "a mild, dreamy Russian" and Hyndman, "a cock-a-whoop man"; spent Sunday with the Cobden Sandersons; talked to Lady Dorothy Nevill at the Jeunes' dinner party; has seen Miss Sellers, Dolly Bloomfield, Aide.
336	June 24, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is trying to collect information about socialists to offer Bella Duffy; will meet Cotter Morrison, Miss Gruner and Champion; doesn't see Mary Robinson often; lunched with Lady Wolseley; went to tea at Mary Wakefield's; dined "more or less en famille with the Leslie Stephens"; lunched with John Sargent; "A Phantom Lover" well received.
337	June 26, 1887	Violet Paget (Tunbridge, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying at Miss Pete's "pleasant, pretty, Philistine house"; returns to London tomorrow to dine with Annette Callwell; Lady Welby wants her to go to Denton; lunched with Cotter Morrison; has several engagements planned for the next week in London.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
338	June 30, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Her mother need have no fear that she is foolishly "cultivating the Peerage"; spent Tuesday (28th) visiting friends, including Mary Wakefield, John Sargent, Emily Ford, Lady Mt. Temple, Stepniak, Tennants.
339	July 2, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is rather exhausted from all her running about; travel plans are uncertain, but she may visit the Lewis Campbells at St. Andrews, and "some people of George Eliot's" in Warwickshire; met Champion, the socialist, "a very serious, honest person"; dined with Lady Young and the McCarthys.
340	July 5, 1887	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has been very busy with social engagements with various friends, and "a fearful party at the Rossettis"; "Fortnightly" want her to do an article.
341	July 8, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Mrs. Robinson very ill with asthma; at the Thursfields' saw Hubert E.H. Jerningham, an old friend, "you never saw such a thin, hollow-eyed personification of failure"; went to the British Museum with Newton; attended a meeting of "The Fellowship of the New Life," "they are something between Socialists and Positivists"; the Rossettis' party consisted of "extraordinary frowsty ghosts of the great aesthetic movement."
342	July 11, 1887	Violet Paget (Grantham, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Friday evening went, with Miss Sellars, "the beautiful Greek scholar" to a party given by Mr. Somerset Beaumont, "the only pleasant party I have almost ever been at"; is staying with Lady Welby who has an "extraordinary cracky illuminated sort of cleverness all come to nothing."
343	July 15, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has vague plans to travel north, visiting the Herberts and perhaps Mme. Ybarrando; may spend tomorrow with Lady Archie Campbell; took Cotter Morrison to see Lady Dolly and discussed "18th century things"; at the Welbys' met Miss Muir Mackenzie, "a charming old maid"; on Saturday, will visit George Eliot's friend Mrs. Cash.
344	July 17, 1887	Violet Paget (Coventry, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Miss Clapperton, whose Scietnific Meliorism she once reviewed, contrived to get this invitation for her to stay with G. Eliot's friend Mrs. Cash; there at Rosehill, "the atmosphere in fact is heavy with Geo. Eliot"; toured ribbon and watch factories; will return to London to see Lady Dolly and Aide; on Friday, visited the Stillmans, Paters, Cottons, Theodore Watts,

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			Shadwell, Alice Callander.
345	July 20, 1887	Violet Paget (England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Enjoyed her stay at Coventry, although "it was so odd living among people who spoke of George Eliot...as Marian"; visited Lady Dolly and Aide; spent yesterday with Lady Archie Campbell, "it was delightful and so funny!"
346	July 23, 1887	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying at the Robinson's house; will definitely go to Scotland.
347	July 24-25, 1887	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Miss Anstruther-Thomson, "a semi-painter, semi-sculptor, handsome creature...with whom I am expected to make great friends" will join her there at Muir Mackenzie's house; 25th (Kensington): liked Miss Anstruther-Thomson very much, "she is a picturesque personality"; will go to the Robinson's house at Epsom, then to the Wolseleys.
348	July 27, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will travel north to Berwick, Carham, Edinburgh, and St. Andrews before leaving for Brittany; Henry James visited; received a letter from Benn, "quite like a guide book"; various friends want her to visit before she leaves England, but there won't be time, "that blessed Brittany curtails my English possibilities cruelly."
349	July 30, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying with the Paters, as Mrs. Robinson is ill; will visit the Wolseleys at Haslemere for 3 days (August 1-3); C. Anstruther-Thomson has asked her to visit; lunched with the Stillmans, and consequently missed John Dillon's visit to the Robinsons; Pater has written a review of "Juvenilia" for the "Pall Mall"
350	August 3, 1887	Violet Paget (Haslemere, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying at the Wolseleys' manor house, along with Mrs. Andrew Lang, "a nice, bright, tidy little woman"; likes the Wolseleys very much, "Lady Wolseley has a delightful, unconventional, clean, bright sort of mind, with an odd dash of sentiment"; will call on Miss Mackenzie, then return to London; has refused to write an article for the "Fortnightly," having been given only 13 days notice.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
351	August 5, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has been conferring with Dr. Jonathan Hutchinson about Eugene's illness; the doctor "calls the malady one of nervous hyperaesthesia...he thinks E.'s nerves are permanenetly in a state of unhealthy sensitiveness"; asks Eugene to send a complete history of his case.
352	August 8, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	On August 6 went with Mabel Robinson to Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show; later that evening at Pope's Villa at Twickenham saw "Midsummer Night's Dream" "done by electric light"; yesterday went with Mary Robinson to see Lady Archibald Campbell, "an enchanting being, giving one an impression of a delightful big child brought up on fairy books."
353	August 10, 1887	Violet Paget (Carham on Tweed, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had a long, tiring journey north to Carham where she is staying with the Herberts; Carham is surrounded by the Cheviot Mts., the Eildon Hills and the Tweed R., "full ballad country."
354	August 15-16, 1887	Violet Paget (St. Andrews, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had herself photographed at Kelso, in Scotland; finds Scotland "a much scrubbier England, everything more untidy and happy go lucky"; 16th: discovered Leonard Huxley is also staying there at the Campbells' house; wants Eugene to write a play, "something antique but fantastic and spectacular" which Lady Archibald Campbell could use.
355	August 18, 1887	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will send the doctor further details of Eugene's illness; Gaston Parin has written on behalf of a friend wishing to translate "Juvenilia"; will visit M. Ybarrando at Liverpool.
356	August 20, 1887	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will consult Hughlings Jackson " the nerve specialist" about Eugene's illness; "Fortnightly" wants her to do an article on the New Reformation, but she'd rather write "another paper of the Baldwin sort" for the Contemporary Review; thinks the Anstruther-Thomson house delightful, and Miss Thomson herself "a very enchanting creature."
357	August 25, 1887	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Must alter travel plans, as there has been an occurrence which "has given me rather a shock," but which she cannot explain; asks permission to invite Miss Thomson to Florence in the winter; feels closer to Miss Thomson than to anyone except Mary Robinson; is writing a dialogue for the

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			"Contemporary Review"; "Fortnightly" has raised her pay.
358	August 27, 1887	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will go to the Ybarrandos in Liverppol on the 31st; the rest of her travel plans are uncertain.
359	August 30, 1887	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Reveals that what had upset her plans so much was Mary Robionson's sudden engagement to James Darmsteter, "a Jewish Professor at the College de France"; feels quite strongly that the marriage is ill-advised because of Darmsteter's physical deformities; is thankful that she was in the company of Miss Thomson when Mary's shocking announcement was made.
360	September 2, 1887	Violet Paget (Liverpool, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Arrived there after a 12 hour journey; will meet with the doctors on the 5th to discuss Eugene's health.
361	September 2, 1887	Violet Paget (Liverpool, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	M. Ybarrando took her to an art exhibition in Manchester; the Ybarrandos' house is very beautiful and comfortable, but she preferred the atmosphere at the Anstruther-Thomsons'; Mary Robinson seems quite jubilant about her engagement despite everyone's disappointment.
362	September 5, 1887	Violet Paget (Liverpool, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will go to stay with the Stillmans in London; will meet with two doctors to discuss Eugene's illness; hopes to start for Itlay next week.
363	September 6, 1887	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Her consultation with the doctors about Eugene's illness was disappointing, as Hughlings Jackson could not prescribe any new medicine; thinks the Robinsons had better allow Mary to marry Darmsteter, as they couldn't prevent it anyway; intends to be back in Italy by October 1.
364	September 8, 1887	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Spent some time with James Darsteter and thinks he'd be a suitable husband for Mary Robinson despite his physical deformities; Darmsteter himself promises the marriage will be platonic, as neither he nor Mary is "fitted for an ordinary marriage"; for Mary's sake, hope the engagement can be made to appear as normal as possible.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
365	September 12, 1887	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is at the house of Pauline de Cargouet who is "weak as water" so the children and the house are in a wretched state; will leave on the 17th, but her itinerary is uncertain; cannot understand how Mary Robinson will be happy with James Darmsteter as he is very dull, unartistic and unliterary.
366	September 14, 1887	Violet Paget (St. Melaine, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	The London doctors think Eugene has a nervous, rather than vaso-motor, malady; has had a letter from Adele Alfieri, and will visit her for two days; realizes her attitude towards Mary Robinson's engagement vascillates, but she only cares about Mary's "moral dignity, which means her essential happiness"; feels that her friendship with Mary has been hurt by Mary's engagement; "I feel a wretched, helpless idiot."
367	September 18, 1887	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Met Mary Robinson in Paris; will travel to the Alfieris' house tomorrow.
368	September 20, 1887	Violet Paget (S. Martino, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Feels she has done as much as she can to persuade Mary Robinson to break her engagement, but all in vain; arrived at Asti, home of the Alfieris, and will stay there until the 23rd.
369	September 22, 1887	Violet Paget (S. Martino, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	She and Mary Robinson remain with the Alfieris until the 24th when they travel to Venice, via Milan; wants Kit Anstruther-Thomson to have a copy of Eugene's poems.
370	September 24, 1887	Violet Paget (S. Martino, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Delayed departure for Venice until 25th so that she can visit the house of Mme. Alfieri; Mary Robinson is not very well, having received so much opposition to her engagement to Darmsteter; implores Eugene to restrain himself and behave properly when Mary and Darmsteter are in Florence.
371	September 26, 1887	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will remain in Venice while Mary Robinson does her archival research, but only until October 2nd; after that date, will go to Florence.
372	September 27, 1887	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will arrive in Florence with Mary Robinson on Oct. 2; thinks that as long as Mary and Darmsteter's marriage remains platonic, and no children are produced, it may be a satisfactory, if unnatural, arrangement; D'Annunzio, the publisher, is staying at their hotel, and wants to meet Vernon Lee.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
373	September 29, 1887	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence)	Darmsteter wrote to Mary Robinson assuring her that he could have none other than a platonic marriage; feels the situation "is all very extraordinary and not very human" but "After all one cannot make rules for exceptional people"; found D'Annunzio a "Neapolitan"; includes (in Italian) "a memorandum about my room"
374	October 1, 1887	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Delays departure for Florence for one day so that she and Mary Robinson can see Mme. Pisani at Rovigo.
375	n.d. (1888)	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with the Gambas in Rome; with Maria Gamba walked around the city which she thought "all very small and provincial looking compared to Florence."
376	n.d. (1888)	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is glad to be away from Florence, "I am in such a whirl that all this hideous business (Mary Robinson's engagement to Darmsteter) seems a dream"; was introduced to Donna Laura Minghetti; has had invitations from the Stillmans, Miss Hall and Mme. Pasolini.
377	February 26, 1888	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Maria Gamba is making her stay there very pleasant; spends a lot of time with Mme. Pasolini, "far the most charming Italian I know"; visited Marchesa Guerrieri Gonzaga.
378	March 5, 1888	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Florence on the 9th; the Gambas have been very kind to her, while her English friends there are rather ignoring her; Alice Callander may come to Florence in the spring; dined at the Gonzagas, and spent two evenings at Mme. Minghetti's; Pasolinis took her to a Sistine Chapel; "the Pope in complete toggery."
379	n.d. (March 10? 1888)	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Donna Laura Minghetti thought of sending a copy of "Belcaro" to Miss Hastrister, the actress; when Kit Astruther-Thomson visits, V.P. will keep her out of Eugene's way.
380	April 20, 1888	Violet Paget (S. Terenzo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying in a remote place by the sea, next door to Shelley's Casa Magni, "the house of a drowned man."
381	April 23, 1888	Violet Paget (S. Terenzo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	The weather has been so bad, they have not yet been to Porto Venere, "the place I have come to see," so the journey home is delayed.
382	n.d. (1888)	Violet Paget to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health is not good, so will return to Florence after seeing the Cinis at S. Marcello.
383	n.d. (1888)	Violet Paget (S. Felice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is enjoying this quiet place, as "I am subject to sudden fits of fatigue"; Baldwin (V.P.'s doctor) "said I must make no efforts."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
384	June 13, 1888	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Had a good journey, but very hot weather.
385	June 15, 1888	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is feeling much better due to the cooler weather; spent yesterday at Ravenna.
386	June 22, 1888	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will leave Sunday night (24th) for Milan, then on to Airolo and Paris, and England on July 1.
387	June 28, 1888	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will go to the Wolseleys when she arrives in England; wants to go to Scotland immediately to Kit Anstruther-Thomson who "takes care of me in a hundred ways other people wouldn't."
388	July 1, 1888	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has managed the journey from Italy but found Paris tiring and noisy; the doctors advise baths for her health and Kit Anstruther-Thomson wants her to go to Scotland very soon; read that Edmund Gurney died from an overdose of chloroform.
389	July 3, 1888	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is being sensible about her health, "I am really doing nothing you would think silly"; received Mary Robinson's new book of poetry.
390	July 7, 1888	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Will see a doctor about her gout; the Russian doctor says she will need 3 months to regain her health.
391	July 11, 1888	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Doctor in London told her "short of Norway the east coast of Scotland is the best place I could be in"; Mary Robinson is avoiding most of her old friends; will stay with Kit Anstruther-Thomson at Miss Mackenzie's cottage in Effingham, then visit the Sargents and the Fords before going to Scotland.
392	July 14, 1888	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is getting lots of rest there, although General Wolseley "tires me only just less than Pannier"; work is impossible as "I seem to live in a half waking condition only"; feels her health is too weak for a visit to the Austins'; went to see the Sligos near Guildford; all her London friends, except Lady Duffy and Mary Wakefield have been ignoring her.
393	July 17, 1888	Violet Paget (Reading, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Finds the Sargents' mill cottage there very quiet and peaceful, "for the first time for months I seem to feel well."
394	July 21, 1888	Violet Paget (Effingham, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is quite comfortable there at Miss Mackenzie's cottage; she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson leave for Scotland in a week.
395	July 25, 1888	Violet Paget (Effingham, England) to Henry Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Requests the "exact colours of the carriage wheels" be sent to the India Rubber Tyre Co.; her travel plans undecided because of the illness of Kit Anstruther-Thomson's brother.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
396	July 27, 1888	Violet Paget (N. Finchley, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is staying with Evelyn Wimbush until tomorrow morning when she leaves for Scotland with Kit Anstruther-Thomson; still suffers sudden fatigue, "particularly after the slightest mental effort"; Kit gave her an idea for a ballad for Eugene; Kit and another woman are founding a Consumer's League.
397	July 28, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	written in French
398	August 2, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is comfortable there but feels it will be months before she'll be able to write again; an Austrian woman has written for permission to translate "Miss Brown."
399	August 6, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Masson, the publisher, "proposes an Anglo-French publication of my 4 stories"; tomorrow she begins her sea baths.
400	August 8, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Encourages Eugene to send copies of his book to Gosse, Browning and Mary Robinson; is enclosing a note she received from Mary whom she thinks is "trying to get patched up with me while it is still time, before the thing is done"; will attempt to go sea bathing today.
401	August 12, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Thinks the sea baths and walks are improving her health; she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson are usually alone there, so it is very quiet; knows that she will have to slow down the pace of her life unless she wants to become a "permanent invalid."
402	August 13-14, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has not been writing often because of her weak condition; will not allow Mary Robinson to write anymore, as it would be a "dangerous beginning for her married life."
403	August 18, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Her life there is monotonous, "but it is a very pleasant monotony"; her health is improving, but "the intellectual damage seems the worse"; has begun to read a little.
404	August 26, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Her first notice of Mary Robinson's marriage was through Mrs. Sargent's letter her mother forwarded.
405	September 2, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Has had a relapse, and has resumed taking "Dr. Hutchinson's tonic"; Kit Anstruther-Thomson's brother and aunt have visited; wants Eugene to send copies of his new book to Mary Robinson and Kit.
406	September 12, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is hesitant about accepting Miss Wimbush's invitation to travel at her expense; her health has not improved and she knows she will not be able to spend the winter in Florence, but alternative plans all confused.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
407	September 17, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Refuses her mother's offer to send a check; will not allow Kit Anstruther-Thomson to sacrifice her painting all winter; dreads returning to Florence because it is so busy and noisy.
408	September 20, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is returning her mother's check, as she has plenty of money; will accept Miss Wimbush's offer to take her South in the winter; is recovering from her relapse.
409	September 27, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Is angry there has been such a mixup about her accepting Miss Wimbush's offer to pay her way south; feels that accepting, then declining the offer, is unfair to Miss Wimbush; insists her reason for not wanting to return to Florence is not that she has "disagreeable associations" there; would prefer to go to Sicily or Tangier rather than Egypt.
410	September 28, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Apologises for the angry letter she sent yesterday; thinks Tangiers would be the best place for her to visit.
411	October 2, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)	Suggest various towns outside of Florence where they might move to escape the city; thinks Miss Levy would serve as a good reader for Eugene; Kit Anstruther-Thomson is teaching her to ride.
412	October 7, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson have been spending time with the Fergusons, "he a Gladstone M.P."
413	October 9, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Suggests the problem with the new carriage wheels is "due to some defect in balancing"
414	October 15, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Likes his new book of sonnets "immensely," but fears there is too much crammed into it; she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson will stay on a farm for 3-4 days; has hired a pony to learn to ride.
415	October 20, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Expects to sail for Tangiers on November 29.
416	October 25, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is sure she won't be able to travel sooner than in 6 weeks.
417	October 28, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson will stay with a Lady Campbell in Glasgow and a Miss Taylor in Northumberland before going to London; will stay with the Stillmans until her boat sails; is progressing well with her riding; no publisher will take her four stories.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
418	November 1, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Must sail on the 22nd rather than the 29th; needs a check for 50 pounds.
419	November 5, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will travel to Tangiers then to Spain with Evelyn Wimbush; she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson will leave Charleton at the end of the week, going to Edinburgh and Norhtumberland.
420	November 12, 1888	Violet Paget (Charleton, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go directly to London in two days.
421	November 16, 1888	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will give up plans to go to Tangiers, "altho I hear from people just returned that all ground of alarm is limited to the interior of the country"; will go to Gibraltar, and possibly Granada and Corfu.
422	November 17, 1888	Violet Paget (Kent, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with the Austins until the 19th as London was too noisy; the Lemons came to visit; Mrs. Robinson is still very upset by Mary's marriage; has heard that there is not danger at Tangiers, "so eventually I hope we may go."
423	November 22, 1888	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Spent yesterday at Oxford; will sail tomorrow for Gibraltar.
424	November 23, 1888	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	If she can't stay in Spain, would rather go to Sicily than Algiers.
425	November 25, 1888	Violet Paget (off the coast of Portugal) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	The voyage is very rough, but she is not too ill; her strength is improving, "but I feel I shall never be as before, with regard to my head"; Miss Wimbush is miserably sick.
426	November 27, 1888	Violet Paget (Gibraltar, UK) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Just arrived.
427	November 28-29, 1888	Violet Paget (Gibraltar, UK) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Miss Wimbush will cross over to Tangiers tomorrow, as it is quite safe; hired a horse and rode through "several Spanish villages, sort of horrible dust heaps"; 29th: will leave at noon for Tangiers.
428	December 1, 1888	Violet Paget (Tangier, Morocco) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Miss Wimbush are perfectly safe there; has hired a horse to tour on.
429	December 4, 1888	Violet Paget (Tangier, Morocco) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is quite comfortable there; will try bathing as the weather is very warm.
430	December 7, 1888	Violet Paget (Tangier, Morocco) to Bella Duffy (Florence, Italy?)	Tangier is wonderful, but "without the something intimate, the soul, which a picturesque European town possesses"; the only industrious people there are the Jews; misses Scotland and Florence, "I hope this amusing evil may soon be at an end."
431	December 12, 1888	Violet Paget (Tangier, Morocco) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Takes Spanish lessons from a Jew there; will go to see the Spanish theatre with Perdikaris;

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			finds it rather dull there.
432	December 19, 1888	Violet Paget (Tangier, Morocco) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Finds it difficult to move around there; went to see a Moorish woman: "like a Madonna in gala dress"; going now to see "snake charmers."
433	December 23, 1888	Violet Paget (Tangier, Morocco) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is feeling much better, but "this sort of life is wearying me"; may return to Florence in a month.
434	December 26, 1888	Violet Paget ("on the steamer in the Strait") to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Travelling to Malaga, as Tangier was too hard to move around in; found Evelyn Wimbush a dull companion; will travel in Spain before sailing for Naples; is concerned about the future, "as it seems more than ever difficult to make money."
435	December 28, 1888	Violet Paget (Granada, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a smooth journey from Tangiers which didn't hurt her health.
436	January 2, 1889	Violet Paget (Granada, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is very depressed there because "the place and life are fearfully dull"; it is impossible to go riding and the people are "hideous, stupid and intolerably rude"; will leave for Naples on the 23rd.
437	January 5, 1889	Violet Paget (Granada, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson will return to Scotland from Paris at the end of the month but V.P.? will go to Florence as soon as her personal affairs are settled.
438	January 8, 1889	Violet Paget (Granada, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has a ballad subject for Eugene about a Moorish woman; will stay for two weeks at Naples or Capri with Evelyn Wimbush.
439	January 8, 1889	Violet Paget (Granada, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has translated the story of Catalina de Arrogo; has an idea for a ghost story called "The Virgin of the Daggers" about Granada; relates, in some detail, the Moorish history of that place; will leave Gibraltar on the 23rd.
440	January 12, 1889	Violet Paget (Granada, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave tomorrow for Seville; Kit Anstruther-Thomson is not going to Scotland; Miss Mackenzie will be in Florence.
441	January 13, 1889	Violet Paget (Seville, Spain) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived there after an 11-hour journey; "this is a very pretty cheerful town and quite picturesque."
442	January 22, 1889	Violet Paget (Gibraltar, UK) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave tonight on the S.S. Iberia for Naples.
443	January 26, 1889	Violet Paget (on board the S.S. Iberia) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay in Rome and Naples only for a short time as she is anxious to get back to Florence; her health again is bad, "I have been unwellish a long time....this illness has been a great lesson to me not to strain after the impossible, but to do what lies at hand"; wants her friends to know that she is "quite unfit to resume

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			ordinary life."
444	January 27, 1889	Violet Paget (Naples, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay with Maria Pasoline when she goes to Rome; likes Naples very much, "this place is so cheerful after Spain."
445	January 28, 1889	Violet Paget (Naples, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Just received a letter from Eugene sent on the 6th of December, telling her how bad his health is; not having had this letter earlier, she never understood how bad his condition was.
446	January 29, 1889	Violet Paget (Naples, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is very upset that her mother does not seem to understand how fragile her health is; insists, "I shall in future, if my life and work are of any value, have requirements as distinct and necessary as a ground floor and carriage are to Eugene."
447	February 6, 1889	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay in Rome with Maria Pasolini until the 15th; went to hear Orfeo , "beautifully given by a German woman."
448	February 7, 1889	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Asks her mother to send Kit Anstruther-Thomson an invitation to stay with them in Florence; went to Orpheus a second time; Pasolinis will lend her their groom so she will be able to ride.
449	July 10, 1889	Violet Paget (S. Marcello, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave for Coccolia tonight, has enjoyed her stay there.
450	July 18, 1889	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a good journey from France; glad to see Mrs. Stillman, "but much depressed by London"; will go to the Sargents' on the 25th.
451	July 20, 1889	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to a doctor about her hurt arm; "I am much discouraged about the Stuarts; there seems no demand for them at all"
452	July 24, 1889	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Hurt her arm falling down some steps; will stay with the Stillmans until Friday (26th), then go to the Sargents'
453	July 27, 1889	Violet Paget (Persnore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived there at Sargents' yesterday; the city was bad for her health; saw Ben Castillo, "not a bit changed"; dined with Alice Callander, "quite broken by death of brother and bad health"; "Princess Penelope" "not publishable at present."
454	July 28, 1889	Violet Paget (Persnore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	There has been much confusion about cashing her check; feels better in the country than she did in London.
455	August 5, 1889	Violet Paget (Persnore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Hopes to be able to remain there for a week or ten days.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
456	August 10, 1889	Violet Paget (Persore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	At the end of the week will go with Evelyn Pickering to Yorkshire.
457	August 16, 1889	Violet Paget (Persore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave for Ben Rhydding, Yorkshire, Aug. 20; Kit Anstruther-Thomson has been ill, "very weak and worn out generally."
458	August 21, 1889	Violet Paget (Ben Rhydding, Yorkshire) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Left the Sargents' at Fladbury last night; will make arrangements to have sea baths there; "Have suffered terribly from nervous depression of late, said to be a symptom of getting better!"
459	August 23, 1889	Violet Paget (Ben Rhydding, Yorkshire) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is changing lodgings to Ilkley; began sea baths; Kit Anstruther-Thomson will join her and Evelyn Pickering next week.
460	August 24, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Evelyn Pickering "insisted on Kit Anstruther-Thomson and me being her guests here for a fortnight and took this cottage"; her health is bad again, "this odious discomfort and the worry and fatigue have rather pulled me down."
461	August 28, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Sea baths have been helping her health somewhat; John Sargent decided to paint Kit Anstruther-Thomson, so she'll be delayed in getting to Ilkley; wishes she were getting hydrotherapy, "The Dr. here seems very backward, and is a disagreeable cuss."
462	August 30, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson and Vi (?) will arrive tonight; baths and air are helping her health; wrote Spanish story for "New Review."
463	September 3, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Health is improving due to sea baths and the air there; Kit Anstruther-Thomson arrived with Vi (?); "Alfieri has an article in the "19th Century!!!"
464	September 5, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will bring Miss Levy with her to Florence to see Eugene; will return to Italy in November
465	September 8, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave London October 15th with the Childers to return to Italy; Miss Levy can't go with her to Florence.
466	September 11, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Evelyn Wimbush left two days ago, but Vi (?) still remains with her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson there.
467	September 14, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Would Eugene rather have Alice Abadam or Lisa Stillman stay with them in Florence?
468	September 18, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Vi (?) left yesterday; is having difficulty finding someone to go to Florence with her.
469	September 18, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Amy Levy died last week, "and had her novel cremated with her."
470	September 23, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Fears Masson may be giving up his magazine, "a great loss for me"; Emily Ford has visited.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
471	September 24, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Insists her mother needn't have Alice Abadam unless she really wants her to visit.
472	September 26, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been reading Fere and Binet's book on Animal Magnetism and thinks hypnotism should be tried on Eugene; will stay with the Fords at Adel Grange for two days, then go to the Sargents; proposes bringing Miss Mackenzie back to Venice with her.
473	September 28, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Asks to have Elliot Stock send copies of Eugene's book to the Sargents.
474	September 30, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)
475	October 1, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Wants the size of the coachman's glove; "much of my time and money this winter will have to go at the Dentist's!"
476	October 2, 1889	Violet Paget (Ilkley, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is willing to see the doctor in Paris about Eugene; Miss Mackenzie will go to Florence with her.
477	October 5, 1889	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been staying with the Fords since yesterday and today goes to the Sargents'; is happy to be travelling to Florence with Miss Mackenzie as the Childers "couldn't look after me"; Mary Darmsteter (Mary Robinson) wrote saying she wanted to resume their friendship, "the letter doesn't seem to me very sincere."
478	October 8, 1889	Violet Paget (Persnore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will see Dr. Luys about "his machine," as Eugene shouldn't try hypnosis without a doctor; will arrive in Florence on the 21st.
479	October 12, 1889	Violet Paget (Fladbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Explains itinerary; will arrive in Florence on 21st.
480	October 14, 1889	Violet Paget (Fladbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Dr. Luys will show her "his machine," but says he's never heard of a case like Eugene's; Kit Anstruther-Thomson would like to go to Florence in February; has learned that Amy Levy committed suicide, being "on the verge of a terrible and loathsome form of madness"; Miss Mackenzie is ill, so she may have to travel to Florence alone.
481	October 16, 1889	Violet Paget (Fladbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Doctor says Miss Mackenzie will be well enough to travel by next week.
482	October 18, 1889	Violet Paget (Fladbury, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will wait until the 24th for Miss Mackenzie to get well, otherwise, she will travel to Florence alone; goes to the Paters until the 24th.
483	October 22, 1889	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is at the Paters' until the 24th, when she leaves for Florence with Miss Mackenzie.
484	October 25, 1889	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has seen Dr. Luys with his hypnotism machine; Mary (Robinson) Darmsteter will arrive in Florence on the 27th.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
485	January 18, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a good journey; "M. P. (Maria Pasolini) met me in evening clothes between two parties!"
486	January 21, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Olive Thomson will return to Florence with her; is enjoying herself very much there.
487	January 22, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Spends her time with Maria Pasolini and the Stillmans; took a drive in the Campagna; met Boughe at Princess Venosa's.
488	January 27, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been driving with Duckworth in the Campagna; went to the French Academy; R. Ferguson and Lady Helen called.
489	January 31, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay in Rome for another week; has seen the Stillmans, the Martinis, and Princess Venosa.
490	February 4, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Thinks "Michael Field's" criticism of Eugene's poems is absurd; Princess Venosa has interesting dinner parties; will return to Florence on the 9th.
491	February 5, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Can't return to Florence before the 12th or 13th; spent yesterday at Anagni, "a curious mountain town."
492	February 10, 1890	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has decided to return to Florence with Olive Anstruther-Thomson on the 13th; will ask Evelyn to lunch on Friday (14th); lunched at Donna Laura Minghetti's, then went to the Duchess Grazioli's.
493	July 22, 1890	Violet Paget (Panzano, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson are very comfortable there, in a "delightful farmhouse, with such kind people."
494	July 23, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived there safely with Kit Anstruther-Thomson from Panzano; the people at Panzano were very kind.
495	July 26, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson's health is better; weather has been unseasonably cold.
496	July 30, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is able to take nice drives there, but "I have a little of Kit's neuralgic complaint now."
497	August 1, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"I am so vexed about Cecconi and wrote off to him at once."
498	August 7, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Bourget has married a "Catholic jeune personne"; Lord Wolseley is given a command in Ireland.
499	August 10, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health has been bad again; Quilter, editor of the "Universal Review," wanted articles from her, but wouldn't accept the fiction she offered; the races will be on the 16th and 17th; will begin a week-long tour of Italy on the 18th.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
500	August 12, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health is not good: "I fear I am in for a little relapse, getting weaker and some of my old symptoms I had in Spain"; will try to get hydropathic treatment in Piedmont.
501	August 13, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Plans for travel are still vague because of her health; is angry that Eugene wrote Ceconi "a stinger--after all, he was not solely to blame."
502	August 14, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is concerned that Kit Anstruther-Thomson insists upon paying her own way when they travel together; thinks she (V.P.) ought to pay for both of them, "as she (Kit) is necessary to my getting about at all" and Kit has very little money; has fallen into a relapse "due to writing and generally doing too much"; the "Contemporary" and "Fortnightly" want articles but she can't write.
503	August 17, 1890	Violet Paget (Siena, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson insists on accompanying her to the hydropathic and paying her own way; the "Contemporary"'s acceptance of her manuscript of "A Worldly Woman" is unexpected; has been attending the horse races there for three days; tomorrow will begin their trip through Italy.
504	August 19, 1890	Violet Paget (S. Ginugnano, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Stayed here for one night, will move on to Volterra; will have a hydropathic treatment in the Appenines, as it isn't too far away; met Mrs. Jack Gardener at Mme. Chigi's.
505	August 20, 1890	Violet Paget (Volterra, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay in this "strange Etruscan place" overnight, to rest the pony.
506	August 22, 1890	Violet Paget (Pontedera, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay here "in this manufacturing hole" overnight before going on to Lucca.
507	August 23, 1890	Violet Paget (Lucca, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has given up going to the hydropathic as it would be a long journey; will take a cottage near Abetone and have sea baths at Venice.
508	August 24, 1890	Violet Paget (Lucca, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will arrive at S. Marcello tomorrow morning, where they will have rooms; Bunting (ed. Of "Contemporary Review") has sent her 20 pounds.
509	August 28, 1890	Violet Paget (S. Marcello, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Elena French has taken a house for her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson 2 hours from S. Marcello.
510	August 30, 1890	Violet Paget (Prataccio, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson are comfortable there, but it is quite cold; will leave Thursday (Sept. 4th) for Bologna or Modena.
511	September 1, 1890	Violet Paget (Prataccio, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Wonders if she should return to Florence, as Eugene's health is so bad.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
512	September 4, 1890	Violet Paget (Piteglio, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Asks her mother to send tea and soup tablets, "we find them a great resource in this wilderness."
513	September 14, 1890	Violet Paget (Bologna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	The Pasolinis are taking care of their pony, and tomorrow they leave for Venice; read an article on Mary Darmsteter and wonders "how Mary can endure such a piece of impertinence...she must have utterly ceased to be an Englishwoman."
514	September 16, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with Kit Anstruther-Thomson in nice, inexpensive lodgings; does not understand how Mary Darmsteter could like the article that was written about her, but "she had got strangely avid of even the most fulsome and impertinent personal flattery"; suggests Eugene take Clementina Black as a secretary for a month.
515	September 18, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has begun to take sea baths.
516	September 20, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is taking sea baths and swimming lessons; Claude Phillips and Schuster took her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson rowing; Kit is very weak with constant cold and fatigue.
517	September 21, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson will go to stay with Mrs. Bronson at Asolo after October 7th.
518	September 21, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay an extra week in Venice, with the money her mother sent as a birthday present; is very worried about Kit Anstruther-Thomson's health and fears consumption.
519	September 25, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is "horrified" about Bergust's accident; Kit Anstruther-Thomson's health is a little improved; will lunch with Mr. Peto.
520	September 26, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Have had invitations from Coss. Marcello and Mme. Pisani; Symonds is expected to move in next door.
521	September 30, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Thinks the Curtises' lack of hospitality due to "the V. business, or with that story "Two Novels."
522	October 3, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Thinks Miss Black would be "immensely grateful" to be able to stay with them in Florence.
523	October 6, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	As Mrs. Bronson is ill, the trip to Asolo must be given up; she and Kit Anstruther will go to Ravenna to await Maria Pasolini's return from Paris.
524	October 8, 1890	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
525	October 9, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson are staying in the Pasolini's house there; encourages Eugene to take Clementina Black as a temporary secretary; is very concerned about Kit's ill health; thinks "someone at Venice has been making mischief against me" as people are being barely civil.
526	October 11, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	They are very comfortable in the Pasolini's house there, and are living cheaply.
527	October 14, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"This is my birthday, so I must write to thank for having been brought into a world which is most often tolerable and occasionally good"; will lunch with the Gambas.
528	October 18, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Gives instructions about matting and carpeting.
529	October 19, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Asks to have winter clothes sent to her.
530	October 21, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is trying to find a different pony; may go to the Spallettis'.
531	October 24, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Thanks her mother for having sent the winter clothes, as it is so cold there; Maria Pasolini will arrive in Coccolia in a week; will go with Kit Anstruther-Thomson to the Spallettis' for 4 days; Mary Darmsteter continues to write to her, despite her pleas that she stop; includes an extract from one of Mary's letters about Eugene's poetry.
532	October 26, 1890	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Goes tomorrow to Spallettis'; will be at Coccolia on the 30th; will try to see Dr. Murri at Bologna about her diet.
533	October 28, 1890	Violet Paget (Bologna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	On their way to the Spallettis'; is trying to sell her pony.
534	November 1, 1890	Violet Paget (Rubiera, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Was sick with a "very bad chill," but hopes to travel to Coccolia tomorrow; is expecting a check from the "Contemporary."
535	November 3, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Cannot buy a new horse until she sells the one she has; was very sick for one day at the Spallettis'; the "Contemporary" published, in two installments, her story "A Wordly Woman," "which I hope you will do me the honour to read."
536	November 5, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	May have a buyer for her horse.
537	November 8, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is taking quinine for her cold and chills.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
538	November 9, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Buntin, editor of the "Contemporary Review," has raised her pay only insignificantly; is "restless to get home and settled to my work"; has had an invitation from Mme. Gordigiani to stay her villa.
539	November 12, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Walter Scott, proprietor of the "Art Journal," returned some of Kit Anstruther-Thomson's drawings; as production of the "Art Journal" has ceased, there seems no chance that Eugene will be paid for the sonnets he sent them; can't sell her horse as it has a cold; will go home as soon as the horse is sent over the Appenines.
540	November 17, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Wants to leave by the 21st.
541	November 18, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been asked for an article by the "New Review"; although she has been cured of her "cerebral weakness," has discovered that her digestion is "quite ruined"; insists that once she returns to Florence she be allowed to order and prepare her own food.
542	November 21, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Florence soon, after spending a few days with Mrs. French at Pistoia.
543	November 23, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Dr. Murri told her she suffers from "nervous dyspepsia," which requires the "greatest care and humouring"; the doctor has prescribed a nerve tonic and a dilution of hydrochloric acid; hopes to be back in Florence on the 28th, after having spent 3 days with Mrs. French.
544	November 24, 1890	Violet Paget (Coccolia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will not be able to see Mrs. French, as she is still at S. Marcello; she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson will arrive in Florence tomorrow.
545	March 5, 1891	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"This is a most lovely place"; Kit Anstruther-Thomson leaves in the afternoon.
546	March 5, 1891	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Alice "accepts with joy and gratitude"; Kit Anstruther-Thomson has just left.
547	March 10, 1891	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had lunch with Maria Pasolini's sister-in-law; yesterday drove into Genoa; will return to Florence on 14th.
548	June 24, 1891	Violet Paget (Montericco, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	The Gambas saw her off at Florence; travelled part of the way with the Magneders and Gennaro Placci; will see the doctor in Bologna tomorrow.
549	June 25, 1891	Violet Paget (Montericco, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to the Spallettis' tomorrow; visited Modena.
550	June 27, 1891	Violet Paget (Rubiera, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay here one day before moving on to Milan where she will be met by Donna Laura Gropallo; didn't see Dr. Murri.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
551	June 28, 1891	Violet Paget (Milan, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Was met at the station by Laura Gropallo; will lunch with a friend of Placci tomorrow; received a letter from Mary Darmsteter.
552	July 2, 1891	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will number the sentences in her letters so as to "give the news in small numbered particles to Eugene"; visited the Sargents; John Sargent took her to the new Salon; Panniers invited her to dinner; went to see Mary Darmsteter at her home with Carlo Placci; found Mary "tremendously changed...apparently no interest beyond herself"; will go to the Paters' upon arrival in England.
553	July 4, 1891	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)
554	July 7, 1891	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay with the Paters until the 10th or 11th; "I hate this black hideous place and wish I were back in Italy."
555	July 9, 1891	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Harris, editor of the "Fortnightly", wants her to do criticism of his articles; called on the Robinsons.
556	July 11, 1891	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is going to stay with Kit Anstruther-Thomson; will lunch with Miss Ferguson; has seen only the Robinsons and Mrs. Barstow; "it's a bad business about poor little Mar=t C=den."
557	July 14, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to hear the socialists at Morris' house at Hammersmith; Miss Arnold, Miss Wakefield, and Miss Black all called.
558	July 16, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Maitland wants to see her; lunched with Sir Charles Newton, "rapidly dying, but charming"; Dorothy Blomfield likes Eugene's play; may go to the Austins'.
559	July 18, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Hamilton Aidé called; lunched with Miss Wakefield; has sent Unwin mss. of three stories; confusion over how much money she will receive from "Fortnightly" for her article.
560	July 20, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Called on Lady Wolseley; Kit Anstruther-Thomson's brother called; has seen much of the Fergusons; Miss Black brought "Champion the socialist" to meet her.
561	July 25, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will not accept only £20 from Unwin for her stories; is going to a polo match; sees "a good deal" of the Fergusons.
562	July 28, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is sending her stories to Balesten, "without much hope"; Miss Ferguson took her to see Lucas Malet; will go to the Austins' for 3 or 4 days.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
563	July 30, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to Mrs. Graham Thomson's party-- "such scrubs!"; "Baldwin" and "Juvenilia" "virtually out of print"; first half of "Pictor Sacrelegus" out in the "Contemporary"; will dine with the Paters.
564	August 1, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is dissatisfied with her book sales, "I am decidedly an unsuccessful author, well known but not read."
565	August 7, 1891	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with the Austins until the 10th; "have been very low in health and spirits"; will visit Hamilton Aïdé at Ascot.
566	August 8, 1891	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Asks her mother to get a copy of "Fantasia" for Alfred Austin.
567	August 11, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Unwin wants to get back the rights to "Juvenilia"; "Contemporary" has paid £28.10 for first half of "Pictor Sacrelegus"; will see Mary Darmsteter for a day in London.
568	August 13, 1891	Violet Paget (Ascot, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)
569	August 15, 1891	Violet Paget (Ascot, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has had a pleasant stay with Aïdé; her last book of stories was a loss to Heinemann.
570	August 18, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay with Lady Campbell from the 4th to the 11th of September; with Kit Anstruther-Thomson will visit various friends in England; requests fruit, flowers, and wine be sent to the Paters from Florence.
571	August 22, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will visit some of Kit Anstruther-Thomson's relatives; Emily Ford called; went to the Museum with Eugénie Sellers, "like her so much."
572	August 25, 1891	Violet Paget (Guildford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been staying there for 2 days; will go to Maidenhead, then London, then Chelmsford, before leaving Scotland.
573	August 28, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Leaves today to stay in Chelmsford until September 1, visiting Kit Anstruther-Thomson's brother.
574	September 3, 1891	Violet Paget (Crarae, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)
575	September 7, 1891	Violet Paget (Inverary, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Of an article in the "Review", "these English have no more imagination than pint pots."
576	September 8, 1891	Violet Paget (Crarae, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will be at Assynt for a week; wants to go to London for a while "to see a few people, particularly Buddhists with a view to a story"; Miss Little will stay with them in Florence at Christmas; Kit Anstruther-Thomson also wants to go to Florence at that time.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
577	September 10, 1891	Violet Paget (Crarae, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will be at Assynt for a week, then will stay with Mrs. Taylor near Newcastle, before going to Emily Ford's near Leeds; Mrs. Graham Thomson "handsome certainly but rather Athenaeumy."
578	September 12, 1891	Violet Paget ("Steamer on Caledonian Canal," Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Stayed last night at Oban with Kit Anstruther-Thomson; will arrive at Inverness, then take train to the Fergusons'; will meet Kit at the Fords' on 21st.
579	September 14, 1891	Violet Paget (Assynt, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived there on the 12th, after a long journey; may go to Edinburgh with Mme. Cantagelli's sister; will visit Mrs. Taylor at Newcastle.
580	September 17, 1891	Violet Paget (Assynt, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to the Tods' at Edinburgh for 2 days then to Mona Taylor in Northumberland; will be back in Florence by November 15; went to pony races in Inverness.
581	September 19, 1891	Violet Paget (Assynt, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will visit Mme. Cantagelli's sister at Edinburgh, then join Kit Anstruther-Thomson at the Fords'; will see Mrs. Graham Thomson and Mrs. Webster when she is in London; may visit with Kit, Miss Mackenzie.
582	September 22, 1891	Violet Paget (Corstophine, Scotland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with Miss Tod outside Edinburgh; will meet Kit Anstruther-Thomson in Leeds in 2 days.
583	September 25, 1891	Violet Paget (Chipchase Castle, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay here with Mrs. Taylor for a day before going to the Fords'; saw the Forth Bridge at Edinburgh, "a marvelous and very beautiful monument."
584	September 27, 1891	Violet Paget (Leeds, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Found Chipchase Castle "delightful"; will see if she can stay with the Creightons on her way south; will be in Chelsea by the 30th.
585	September 29, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Henry James called and said "he is going in deliberately for playwriting"; will see a dramatization of "The American"; her health is very good.
586	October 2, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to see a dramatization of Henry James's "American", "a great deal seems to me unnecessary concession to a vulgar public"; Olive Thomson is very anxious to go to Italy.
587	October 4, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to see the Daly Company "considered the best comedians in English. So vulgar and lachrymose."
588	October 6, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"Poor little Margaret C-n Cobden is dead"; visited Mrs. Clifford whose "literary house strikes me as more odious than ever"; "I am in search of Buddhists and spiritualists for a story."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
589	October 8, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Bad health may necessitate an early return to Florence; Mrs. Graham Thomson and Mrs. Webster are both away from London; before she died, Margaret Cobden "had lost her mind utterly"; will see some Theosophists in the evening.
590	October 9, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health is much better; "Half the edition of 'Hauntings' was burnt accidentally. A new cheap one will come out."
591	October 11, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Would like to ask Mrs. Ward's sister to come to Florence; "on better acquaintance I like Miss Sellers very much."
592	October 14, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Spoke to the Travellers' Club at a dinner at Toynbee Hall; will visit Lady Archie Campbell at Coombe; "Nineteenth Century" returned one article, but asks for another.
593	October 15, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Dined with Mrs. Barstow.
594	October 17, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mlle. De Bury called, "very much Melegan type, sentimental, elderly, but slatternly!!!"; dined with the Dunhams.
595	October 22, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mrs. Mahomed took them to see some schools in the East End; "Contemporary" took her article which "Nineteenth Century" rejected.
596	October 23, 1891	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay overnight with Miss Mackenzie.
597	October 25, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Visited the Stephens and Mrs. Clifford; would like to invite Miss Sellers to come to Florence in May.
598	October 28, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Lunched at Coombe with Lady Archie Campbell; Robinsons have asked her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson to dinner; may go to stay with Kit's cousins at Norfolk.
599	October 31, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Olive Thomson will arrive in Florence November 4; will attend Miss Sellers' lecture at the British Museum; will see the Paters and lunch with Sir Charles Newton.
600	November 2, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is tempted to return to Florence, but thinks she had better stay in London and see a few people; called on the Garnetts.
601	November 5, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mrs. Taylor is taking her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson to see "As You Like It"; has been to Miss Sellers' lectures at the British Museum; may write about Greek sculpture.
602	November 7, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Saw the production of "The American" again, "Didn't like it this time."
603	November 9, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is considering lecturing as "a mode of influence and money making"; went to a dull

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			dinner at Raffalovich's.
604	November 11, 1891	Violet Paget (Thetford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stop at Cambridge on her way back to London on the 13th; Miss Gladstone and Fred Myers are both out of town.
605	November 14, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Visited Sir Charles Newton; will lecture the "Toynbees" on the 20th.
606	November 16, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	The University Extension wants her to begin lecturing at once; may lecture on "Greek art as a standard of all art."
607	November 18, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will give her "Toynbee lecture" on the 20th; will return to Florence immediately, "if you want me."
608	November 21, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her lecture at Toynbee went well.
609	November 22, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will come to Florence very soon; found that the lecturing season is 20 October to Easter, which would be hard for her to arrange.
610	November 29, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave for Florence Dec. 2, stopping at Paris and Nervi; will try lecturing in Rome at Easter.
611	n.d. (1891)	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been Bella Duffy only twice; will go with Kit Anstruther-Thomson to the Ranee at Wimbledon.
612	December 1, 1891	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Leaves for Florence tomorrow.
613	December 3, 1891	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Lunched with Mme. Blanc and had tea with Mary Darmsteter; leaves tonight for Nervi.
614	December 5, 1891	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is tired and would like to remain there until the 7th or 8th.
615	December 7, 1891	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will arrive in Florence on 9th.
616	January 15, 1892	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson	"The Fenzi business has been much worse than the worst anticipations," involving "bankruptcy, complicated with fraudulent affairs"; Nina Barstow implores her to give up her idea of lecturing; feels about lecturing, though, that "if it's worthwhile writing for shoddies, it's also worthwhile lecturing"; asks Kit to "nail Miss Sellers" on the subject; Miss Duffy warns her that essay writing "was only journalism after all."
617	April 12, 1892	Violet Paget (Orvieto, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has enjoyed seeing things there; leaves for Rome today.
618	April 14, 1892	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson were met at the station there by Maria Pasolini.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
619	April 28, 1892	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Spent 1/2 day at Frascati; dined with the Bourgetts; will return to Florence May 7.
620	April 28, 1892	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will start her journey as planned.
621	June 16, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson dined with Vitteria Cima, Placci's friend; "Pratesi called, much aged"; will call on Mary Darmsteter and the Panniers.
622	June 17, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Called on Mary Darmsteter and found Miss Poynter staying there; will meet Gaston Paris at at Mary's tomorrow; called on Mlle. Read.
623	June 19, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Called on Mme. de Bury, "infinitely untidy and poor, but very genial and enthusiastic"; lunched with Mary Darmsteter, "won't again"; Mason called.
624	June 21, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to see Mr. Müntz, Directeur des Beaux Arts; visited Mme. de Montibello; dined with Placci's sister.
625	June 22, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to the Paters' on the 27th; dined with the Panniers and "Mary [Darmsteter] became sore subject."
626	June 24, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mme. de Montibello "proved delightful"; Knowles, ed. of "Nineteenth Century" sent a check for only £12, which she assumes was for someone else.
627	June 26, 1892	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Received letter from Knowles (ed. of "Nineteenth Century") with new check; Violet Desmond had a baby girl; will call on Burgs and Mary Darmsteter; leaves tomorrow.
628	June 28, 1892	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will lunch with Miss Dunham to see John Sargent and Placci; "England uninviting, cannot conceive why I've come!"
629	June 30, 1892	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Lunched with Mrs. Taylor and Miss Ferguson; saw Bella Duffy and Mrs. Lang; has been invited by Mrs. Creighton; called on the Robinsons.
630	July 2, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will lunch with Mr. Watts today, tomorrow with Bella Duffy; on 4th will go to Kit Anstruther-Thomson's.
631	July 5, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson's health is no better; "I am awfully feeble and depressed with the usual London depression;" will lunch with the Fergusons.
632	July 7, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has left cards with the Wards and Gosses; "everyone engaged in elections, small liberal majority expected"; is studying at National Gallery.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
633	July 9, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Visited Bunting; dined with Miss Dunham; will go with Mrs. Ward for an afternoon in the country; will lunch at Cyril Flowers'.
634	July 11, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Swelling in her leg, for which she saw "the Russian Doctress in Paris," is better; Kit Anstruther-Thomson's brother Arthur visited; would like to ask Arthur to stay with them in Florence at Christmas; visited Mrs. Clifford: "how grimy and grubby and literary!"
635	July 13, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had to see a doctor about her swollen eye; will go to Miss Mackenzie's for a few days; Kit Anstruther-Thomson "very seriously run down."
636	July 16, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to Miss Mackenzie's for a week, leaving Kit Anstruther-Thomson alone in London.
637	July 18, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Leaves today for Miss Mackenzie's; will try to go to Venice on the way back to Florence; dined with the Fergusons.
638	July 19, 1892	Violet Paget (Ranmore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is very comfortable there with Miss Mackenzie; will stay a week or 10 days.
639	July 22, 1892	Violet Paget (Ranmore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	May go to Scotland in August, "if London knocks me up again"; Will go see Aide at Ascot for a few days.
640	July 25, 1892	Violet Paget (Ranmore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has resumed writing; may stay with some Americans at Losely Hall for the weekend
641	July 28, 1892	Violet Paget (Ranmore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Kit Anstruther-Thomson in London as she is very ill.
642	July 30, 1892	Violet Paget (Ranmore, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Returns to London today; may stay with Aide for a few days.
643	August 1, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson very ill, but "insists on going to Psychological Congress today!"; will begin study of Greek sculpture; visited St. Paul's.
644	August 2, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is attending the Psychological Congress attended by Helmholtz, Suley, Barn, Galton, Stanley; Dr. Bramwell did a hypnotic experiment; "remarkable new lights on suggestion in functional diseases."
645	August 5, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Saw experiments of hypnotic suggestion at the Psychological Congress.
646	August 7, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to see the Robinsons and Mary Darmsteter at Epsom; may stay with Lady Welby or Aide if Kit Anstruther-Thomson goes to her cousin's.
647	August 10, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay alone in London while Kit Anstruther-Thomson goes to her cousin's near Epsom.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
648	August 12, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to the Palmers near Guildford for the weekend, then to the Austins for as long as Kit Anstruther-Thomson stays away from London.
649	August 15, 1892	Violet Paget (Guildford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying in a "beautiful old house" there; hopes to go to the Austins tomorrow.
650	August 17, 1892	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go with Kit Anstruther-Thomson to St. Moritz to stay with Miss Dunham.
651	August 18, 1892	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave for St. Moritz with Kit Anstruther-Thomson next week.
652	August 20, 1892	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay with Kit Anstruther-Thomson at Miss Dunham's in St. Moritz; will arrive in St. Moritz on the 27th.
653	August 23, 1892	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with Miss Moffat until tomorrow when she leaves for Bale.
654	August 27, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"Very wonderful and beautiful scenery here...brilliant sun and delightful air."
655	August 29, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson's health is already improving there; took a drive with Placci yesterday; has been invited to stay with Contessa Suardi at Bergamo.
656	August 31, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Countryside there is "delightfully stimulating and full of strange beauty"; they take many drives.
656.1	September 1, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Met another of Maria Pasolini's sister, Mme. Esengrini, who invited her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson for a visit.
656.2	September 4, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay with Miss Dunham until the 12th or 13th; will go to Venice, then to see Maria Pasolini.
656.3	September 6, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Met the "charming local magnates, Von Planta, sort of feudal sovereign."
656.4	September 8, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave on the 15th, stopping at Promontogno.
656.5	September 10, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Gives itinerary of her trip with Kit Anstruther-Thomson from St. Moritz to Venice.
656.6	September 12, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has seen Mrs. Penn Browning several times; is reading about French literature.
656.7	September 13, 1892	Violet Paget (St. Moritz, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave in 2 days for Promontogno, accompanied by Kit Anstruther-Thomson and Miss Dunham.
656.8	September 15, 1892	Violet Paget (Promontogno, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay here overnight before going to Cernobbio tomorrow.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
656.9	September 17, 1892	Violet Paget (Cernobbio, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Was met upon arrival there by Laura Gropallo.
656.10.	September 19, 1892	Violet Paget (Monza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Recovered her lost bag after 3 days; dined with Donna Vittoria Ceina; is staying with Mme. Esengrini, "a timid copy of Maria Pasolini, very kind."
656.1	September 20, 1892	Violet Paget (Monza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will remain here for 1 or 2 days, then go to Contessa Suardi at Bergamo.
656.1	September 21, 1892	Violet Paget (Monza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will remain there until the 23rd; Kit Anstruther-Thomson's health much improved.
656.1	September 22, 1892	Violet Paget (Monza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is sending photos home as they are too heavy for her to carry.
656.1	September 24, 1892	Violet Paget (Bergamo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay there until the 29th, then go to Verona.
656.2	September 24, 1892	Violet Paget (Bergamo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay there until 27th, then may go to stay with Countess Marcello.
656.2	September 27, 1892	Violet Paget (Bergamo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go tomorrow to Contessa Marcello's until the 30th; then will go to Mrs. Bronson's at Asolo Veneto.
656.2	September 29, 1892	Violet Paget (Magliano, Italy) to Matilda (Florence, Italy)	Will stay here overnight before going to Mrs. Bronson's at Asolo, Veneto.
656.2	October 1, 1892	Violet Paget (Asolo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived here at Mrs. Bronson's yesterday; will probably go to Venice on the 4th.
656.2	October 4, 1892	Violet Paget (Asolo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"This is the most beautiful place in the world;" will go to Venice tomorrow.
656.20.	October 6, 1892	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Kit Anstruther-Thomson hope to be in Florence on the 16th; wants to take Kit to a doctor in Bologna for her ear.
656.2	October 9, 1892	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Wants Eugene to order flowers and bushes at once; will be in Florence on the 16th.
656.2	October 12, 1892	Violet Paget (Montericco, Italy) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Will take Kit Anstruther-Thomson to see nurse in Bologna on 14th; hopes to be in Florence on the 16th.
656.2	October 14, 1892	Violet Paget (Montericco, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Florence on Monday, the 17th; Dr. Murri says Kit Anstruther-Thomson's ear problem is "only influenza effects hanging about."
657	January 31, 1893	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Journey there was "long and rather tiring"; Miss Sellers would like to visit them in Florence.
658	February 2, 1893	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Finished writing dialogue ("Althea?") for Harris; "It is the first fruit of all that wearisome political economy reading, so I am very pleased"; asks her to send a copy of "Walden" to Miss Krahnstörer.
659	February 5, 1893	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Went to Genoa for a day; will stay at Mme. Heurano's house at Toscana until the 11th.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
660	February 6, 1893	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Dr. Erb said Eugene will never be "permanently the worse for a relapse, as it is now a mere matter of hyperaesthesia"; Miss Sellers will visit for 3 days; sent ms. of dialogue to Harris ("Althea?")
661	February 28, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Miss Anstruther-Thomson, Kit's aunt, is very ill.
662	February 29, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Miss Anstruther-Thomson, Kit's aunt, died yesterday; Kit "very busy, sad, and fagged."
663	March 3, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Attended Miss Anstruther-Thomson's (Kit's aunt's) funeral; has called on Maria Gamba.
664	March 6, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Harris will pay £15 less than she expected for her mss; suggests Eugene employ Dorothy Blomfield as a secretary for May; will return to Florence by the 15th.
665	March 7, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson is busy with the lawyers settling her aunt's estate; advises Eugene to find himself a secretary; Lady Campbell is ill, and Kit may go to nurse her.
666	March 8, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has asked Dorothy Blomfield to be Eugene's secretary; Kit Anstruther-Thomson want to return to Florence, "Don't refuse her, she might be hurt."
667	March 9, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Dined with the Stillmans and Aidé; attended a dinner for the Russian Ambassador, Martini, the Venosas, Primoli; will dine with Maria Gamba.
668	March 10, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Florence with Kit Anstruther-Thomson on the 20th.
669	March 12, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Maria Gamba wants to take Kit Anstruther-Thomson riding.
670	March 13, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Florence on the 20th, with Kit Anstruther-Thomson following on the next day.
671	March 16, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"The Queen seems to wish to see me, but... I have no clothes, among other difficulties"; met Countess Glerchen, "a sculptor, nice."
672	March 18, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return Monday evening (20th); wants Eugene to try a secretary in May, in preparation for the summer; insists Bella Duffy and Emily Sargent be asked to visit; has given up meeting the Queen, as she didn't have the proper clothes; went to a party at the Venosas.
673	March 21, 1893	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will arrive in Florence with Kit Anstruther-Thomson tomorrow.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
674	June 8, 1893	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a good journey from Amiens where she saw the Cathedral; "my hosts (the Austins) are out, having had no notion of the hour of my train."
675	June 9, 1893	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave the Austins on the 16th, going to Miss Moffatt's until the 19th, then to Miss Price's until the 28th.
676	June 11, 1893	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Received a letter from Pratesi, saying he'd received the post of Provviditore at Belluno.
677	June 14, 1893	Violet Paget (Ashford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is upset about Eugene's health; Kit Anstruther-Thomson is at Charleton, Scotland.
678	June 17, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying in London with Miss Moffatt; Kit Anstruther-Thomson will visit tomorrow; will go to Oxford on 19th.
679	June 19, 1893	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived this morning in Oxford; Kit Anstruther-Thomson came for dinner last night; will go to the Paters' June 28-July 3.
680	June 22, 1893	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Saw Lord Rosebury given a degree at Commemoration; went to "a great lunch at All Souls... I sat between the President of Trinity and Master of University, whose gowns almost buried me."
681	June 29, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson took her to the New Gallery to see John Sargent's portraits; John Sargent's portraits; John is "the great man of the season"; "London has had its usual effect of depressing and disgusting me."
682	June/July, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Mrs. Robinson and Mabel took her to see Mrs. Rosetti; "Paters had people to tea, 24 women and no man!"; will spend a day at Wimbledon with Raneé Brooke; dined at the Dunhams'; with the Sargents will "see some Dahomey people War dance at the Crystal Palace"; goes to Miss Sellers' on Monday.
683	July 4, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is living with Eugenie Sellers in London; met Bernard Shaw, "who despite... his socialism, is one of the most really brilliant writers and thinkers we have"; dined with Cotton and Kit Anstruther-Thomson at the Paters'; Mme. Ybarrando is near death; publisher MacIlvaine has accepted new volume of Dialogues, to be called "Althea"; will write a final dialogue, "summing up"; will dine with Claude Phillips.
684	July 7, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Saw Swenburne while visiting a Miss Hay; "I have been seeing and attempting to see various socialists"; saw Bella Duffy; yesterday there was a Royal Wedding.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
685	July 11, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Attend Aïdé's dull party; dined with Claude Phillips; went to Wimbledon with Raneë and met Mrs. Ritchie, Thackeray's daughter; lunched with Playfairs; met Cunningham Graham, "socialist member, delightful man."
686	July 13, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is finishing the last dialogue in "Althea", "it is far the most important book I have so far written... of course it will be financially and otherwise a deadfailure"; Eugene Sellers is "editing the portion of Pleny (?) which refers to antique sculpture."
687	July 16, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	May go in September with Helen Dunham to see Lady Agnew in Wigtonshire; would also visit while there Miss Orr Ewing Dryburgh Abbey and the Hays at Melrose; leaves tomorrow to stay with the Wards in Hertfordshire, then Lady Ponsonby, then Raneë at Wimbledon; called on Mrs. Cyril Flower who had changed her name to Lady Battersea, "doesn't it sounds like the queen of the washerwomen?"
688	July 21, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go with Kit Anstruther-Thomson, Flora Priestly, and Miss Price into the country for 10 days; Kit took her and Berenson to see the Velaquezes at Apsley House; called on Countess Feo Gleichen, "a funny mixture of royalty and Bohemia"; went to Ham Common to see Mrs. Scott and her daughters.
689	July 22, 1893	Violet Paget (Windsor Castle, England) to Henry Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying there with the Ponsonbys, "the Court being away, one can ramble about freely"; the Queen's apartments seem "very German"; Windsor has "an extraordinary want of stateliness and appearance... just the reverse of Oxford or Cambridge."
690	July 27, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has finished writing the last chapter of "Althea"; will go with Kit Anstruther-Thomson, Miss Price, and Flora Priestly somewhere in the country for 10 days; had a wonderful time at Windsor with the Ponsonbys; has been seeing socialists, "Mr. Podmore, a conspicuous one" and Cunningham Graham; is glad to be getting, in England, "a thorough shaking about all of my ideas."
691	July 29, 1893	Violet Paget (Paddington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to Lady Brooke's to meet Placci; on August 1 will go to Bushey with Kit Anstruther-Thomson, Flora Priestly, and Miss Price.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
692	July 30, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Spent the afternoon with Ranees at Wimbledon; thinks the three houses she has "added this year," Ranees', Ponsonbys', and Prices', are "on the whole the nicest I have here"; will send him a copy of Huxley's Oxford lecture on Ethics and Evolution; recommends he read Mill's "Liberty".
693	August 1, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, England)	Will go tomorrow with Kit Anstruther-Thomson to Bushey where Miss Price and Flora Priestly will join them.
694	August 4, 1893	Violet Paget (Bushey, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is glad to be there "as the air of London was beginning to tire me"; "Althea" is finished and going to press.
695	August 7, 1893	Violet Paget (Bushey, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Likes this village very much, as she can be outdoors; Ranees Brooke is glad to have her stay with her at any time; Miss Price is reading to her Browning's "Fifine at the Fair" which she recommends Eugene read but, "I don't think he'd appreciate it yet ."
696	August 11, 1893	Violet Paget (Bushey, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Spends all day outdoors there; will return to London on 13th with Kit Anstruther-Thomson; on 18th gives a lecture at Cambridge; her travel plans for September are uncertain.
697	August 15, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Enjoyed Miss Price's company at Bushey very much; would like to have Miss Ponsonby visit them in Florence in October; realizes she "must set to some consecutive study to cure myself of the desultoriness and incapacity for steady application"; wants Laura Gropallo to start her at working on her "facility for mental science"; travel plans for September are still vague.
698	August 17, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her plans are vague, as no one is able to have her to stay with them; may have to return to Italy early; will go to Cambridge for the weekend.
699	August 20, 1893	Violet Paget (Cambridge, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her lecture at Cambridge went well, with an audience "mainly of the class of school teachers; also Americans and people desirous of disconnected culture"; is in lodgings with Evelyn Wimbush and the Chittendens; lunched with the ladies at Newham, then went to tea with Pertzes; will lunch with Mr. Ward, professor of mental science.
700	August 21, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is trying to arrange for a friend of Miss Price (Miss Cruttwell) to serve as Eugene's secretary.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
701	August 24, 1893	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Thinks Miss Cruttwell would be an acceptable secretary for Eugene; likes Mrs. Ward very much, but thinks Mr. Ward "rather a blundering, bumptious snob"; in September, will stay with the Foster Arbuthnots, Raneë Brooke, the Welbys, Mrs. Taylor, the Hays, the Orr Ewings; will begin for Italy on September 25th.
702	August 26, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Advises Eugene on how to resume writing; went with Kit Anstruther-Thomson to "a sort of new Toynbee Hall on a smaller scale called Mansfield House"; this a sort of club for workmen run by socialists.
703	August 31, 1893	Violet Paget (Kensington, England) to Eugene-Lee Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Thinks she is not a popular writer because of her "habit and determination to write only to please myself, irrespective of readers"; it does not trouble her that she makes little money from her writings; feels she doesn't yet know enough about life to write a novel; "life is too serious to be misrepresented as in 'Miss Brown'...So I am bound to be unpopular, and you must just put up with it. And so must mama."
704	September 5, 1893	Violet Paget (Weybridge, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying for one day with the Trowers here before going to Raneë Brooke's; will be joining Kit Anstruther-Thomson in Scotland; saw the Ponsonbys at St. James' Palace.
705	September 9, 1893	Violet Paget (Wimbledon, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Likes Raneë Brooke very much; "she is such a very good, kind, sincere simple creature"; "Faust" always bores her, but "Browning's 'Paracelsus' is obscure enough to make one commit suicide"; is reading Dante very slowly; is correcting proofs of 'Althea' and it seems "awfully bad"; will visit Miss Smyth for 2 days, then Lady Welby.
706	September 13-14, 1893	Violet Paget (Farnborough, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, England)	Will go to Lady Welby's tomorrow; as Lady Campbell is ill, Kit Anstruther-Thomson is nursing her; stayed one night at Eugenie Sellers' house; met Miss Smyth at Waterloo; 14th: went with Miss Smyth to see the Empress Eugenie, "nothing could be more like a visit to anyone else"; may return to Italy in a few days.
707	September 15, 1893	Violet Paget (Grantham, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has given up plans to go to Scotland; may return to Florence on 21st or 22nd.
708	September 17, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has taken a room close to Kit Anstruther-Thomson; will leave England on the 30th, arriving in Florence on Oct. 4th or 5th.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
709	September 19, 1893	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying in "weird" lodgings inhabited entirely by women; will leave England on 29th or 30th, stopping in Paris on the way to Florence; Lady Welby has improved and seems "comparatively sane," having original ideas about philosophy.
710	September 22, 1893	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave England on 30th, stopping in Paris, and stayin with the Esengrinis at Monza before coming to Florence; will see Miss French at Pistoia.
711	September 29, 1893	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave tomorrow for Calais and spend a day in Paris before going to Italy.
712	October 3, 1893	Violet Paget (Monza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a good journey from Paris; will stay tomorrow at Elena French's, then go to Florence.
713	October 26, 1893	Violet Paget (Pistoia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with Elena French, who is not well; will go to the Rossegliosis on 29th.
714	November 26, 1893	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has arrived at Maria Pasolini's, having travelled with a priest on the train.
715	November 29, 1893	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is enjoying herself there; will return to Florence December 2.
716	April 15, 1894	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Hasn't written because "holding the paper is so very tiring and troublesome."
717	May 31, 1894	Violet Paget (Milan, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Was met by Placci, Mille. Alfieri and the Papafavas at the station; will dine with Laura Gropallo and lunch with Mme. Esengrini.
718	June 2, 1894	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Saw the Esengrinis, Laura Gropallo and Mme. Ponti while in Milan; travelled from Milan to Paris with Flora Priestly who helped an old Swiss couple find their way abroad.
719	June 3, 1894	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will dine with the Panniers tonight.
720	June 9, 1894	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to Miss Price's at Oxford, rather than the Paters', when she gets to England; has seen Mary Darmsteter twice, "but briefly and badly"; has seen the Taines, Mme. Blanc, and Mme. de Montebello; "I like Paris so much better than London."
721	June 12, 1894	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has seen much of Mme. Blanc, at whose house she met Rosny, "a strange illdressed, black, bristling person"; did not like either Whistler who gave "no indication of genius" or Tissot, "a painter with next to no talent"; went with Mme. Ormond to a lecture of Desjardins at the Union Morale Association; "went to the 'Revue des 2 Mondes' and saw Bruntiere."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
722	June 15, 1894	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Travelled from France on the same boat as Sarah Bernhardt; lunched with Gandarax, editor of "Revue de Paris" and saw Mary Darmsteter there; met Desjardins "with whose charming personality I am delighted."
723	June 23, 1894	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been busy preparing to deliver a lecture; spends part of each day rowing on the river; will lecture in London on 27th.
724	June 28, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her first lecture "went off tolerably", but the audience was nearly all women; "I speak badly, no doubt about it."
725	June 30, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will write when she is not so busy with her lecture.
726	July 3-4, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson has persuaded her to write her entire lecture, to cut down the temptation to improvise; dined with Mrs. St. John; will go for 2 days to Hertfordshire with Emily Simcox, "one of the last survivors of the George Eliot set"; is reading on Darwinism; lunched at the Playfairs' and had tea with Mr. Watts, "a Michelangelo come in the wrong century."
727	July 6, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her second lecture was successful; had a lovely time in Buckinghamshire with Emily Simcox, "a writer on Ethics and Political Economy"; Macmillan has accepted her paper on Ravenna.
728	July 13, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Made £35 on her lecture series; will visit the Ponsonbys at Windsor for 2 days; she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson will go to see Lady Ross at Richmond; heard Bernard Shaw speak at The Pioneers' Club.
729	July 16, 1894	Violet Paget (Windsor Castle, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay here with the Ponsonbys until tomorrow; all her articles were refused, "I have 5 on my hands"; is able to live on £ a week.
730	July 21, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been ill since her last lecture; doctor said it was "relaxed sore throat and general slight smash"; is going to Richmond until the 24th; on 26th will visit Mrs. Costello at Haslemere; "Nineteenth Century" may publish her lectures.
731	July 24, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been learning to ride a tricycle.
732	July 24, 1894	Violet Paget (Richmond, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"Hauntings" and "Vanitas" are not selling well; "Nineteenth Century" has decided not to publish her lectures; "'Fortnightly' is distinctly no good"; Lady Ross is treating her well there; will visit Mrs. Costello in Haslemere for a week.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
733	July 24, 1894	Violet Paget (Richmond, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health is still not good; Helen Dubham has invited her to go to Whitby in Yorkshire.
734	July 28, 1894	Violet Paget (Haslemere, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health has improved because of the air there; will spend next weekend with the Wards in Hertfordshire.
735	July 30, 1894	Violet Paget (Haslemere, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her health has not improved, so she'll visit the Wards, then go to see Miss Simcox; enjoys the Costello family very much: "I never saw so united, independent and cheerful a family"; has heard a rumor "that Oscar Wilde has got into terrible hot water and left England"; may go to Whitby with the Dunhams.
736	August 8, 1894	Violet Paget (Buckinghamshire, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Deals with some household business; thinks all the refusals she's had from publishers may have affected her health; has nothing to do in England, "none of the people in Scotland or the North have invited me"; has only Miss Smyth and Raneë Brooke to visit.
737	August 13, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Returned from Miss Simcox's and went to the National Gallery; thinks perhaps that her recent illness may have been influenza; Mme. Placci "has been almost at death's door in Florence."
738	August 16, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"With the help of the publisher Heinemann I have recovered my long lost 'Virgin of the 7 Daggers'; will go visit Mrs. Scott.
739	August 25, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has been preparing her lectures to give them to a publisher; has sent mss. of "The Virgin of the Seven Daggers" to Blackwood; went with Kit Anstruther-Thomson to visit Mrs. Scott; plans visits to Aïdé, Miss Smyth, and Raneë Brooke.
740	August 28, 1894	Violet Paget (Farnboro, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Met Harry Cust, editor of the "Pall Mall", and Oswald Crawford, at Aïdé's; "Fornightly Review" may again be receptive to her articles, as Harris is no longer editor; while visiting Miss Smyth, met Thornycroft, "a sculptor I used to admire but now think pretty poor."
741	September 1, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Eugene's sonnets had a favorable review in the "Academy"; will probably be back in Florence on the 22nd, after stopping to see the Esengrinis, the Alfieris, and Mrs. French along the way; has lunched and dined with the Ponsonbys.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
742	September 8, 1894	Violet Paget (Wimbledon, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave England on the 13th, going first to Paris, then to the Alfieris' at Asti.
743	September 12, 1894	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Leaves tomorrow for Paris; will go to Asti, arriving on 16th.
744	September 14, 1894	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to Asti on 17th; Laura Gropallo wants to visit in October.
745	September 18, 1894	Violet Paget (San Martino, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying at Asti with Adele Alfieri; on 21st will go for the weekend to visit Elena French at Pistoia; will arrive in Florence on 24th; while in Paris, saw the archeological excavations from the palace of Artaxerxes Nnemon at Susa.
746	September 19, 1894	Violet Paget (San Martino, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Has felt better ever since she left England; in Paris, got on better terms with Mabel Price, feels Mabel has an intuitive sensitivity about art, but "I think one must be utterly impersonal about her"; "on the whole the Louvre antiques are a poor lot."
747	September 20, 1894	Violet Paget (San Martino, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go tomorrow to Igno, then to Florence on the 24th.
748	September 21, 1894	Violet Paget (San Martino, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go to Igno from the 24th to 26th.
749	September 25, 1894	Violet Paget (Pistoia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will arrive in Florence tomorrow; assumes there must have been some confusion about coordinating her travel plans with Miss Crutwell's, who is to be Eugene's secretary.
750	November 9-10, 1894	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	9th: While Eugene admits his illness is caused by auto-suggestion, he is doing nothing to bring himself out of it; Eugene has convinced himself that he is in for a 2-month relapse; 10th: Eugene "seems to fill the whole horizon with the thought of himself"; will go to Ravenna next week.
751	November 17, 1894	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Is perfectly well, and Kit need not worry about her; her father's death came rather suddenly, but her mother is taking it well; her father "had such a simple, sportsman's or naturalist's temper."
752	January 26, 1895	Violet Paget (San Remo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Publisher Smith paid £50 for 1000 copies of "Renaissance Fancies and Studies"; will stay there until February 1.
753	January 29, 1895	Violet Paget (San Remo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Visited Bordighera (?), "very lovely, particularly from the profusion of palms."
754	January 31, 1895	Violet Paget (San Remo, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will leave tomorrow for Nervi.
755	February 1, 1895	Violet Paget (Genoa, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is detained here while waiting for a train to Nervi.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
756	February 3, 1895	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)
757	February 5, 1895	Violet Paget (Nervi, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	It is very cold there, "almost enough to spoil the place for one."
758	February 12, 1895	Violet Paget (Bogliasco, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will stay with Ranee Brooke until the 15th, as she is unwell.
759	March 19, 1895	Violet Paget (Foligno, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will remain there until the 22nd, then go to Cittadi Castello.
760	March 23, 1895	Violet Paget (Castello, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Arrived "in this beastly little hole"; will stay tomorrow night at Cerezzo, then return to Florence on the 25th.
761	May 3, 1895	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Was met there by Maria Pasolini; "had a philosophic discussion interspersed with dress matters."
762	May 5, 1895	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Kit Anstruther-Thomson has been unwell, and she hopes it won't interfere with their work in the galleries; will stay there until the 12th.
763	May 8, 1895	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Doctor there told her she suffers from nervous exhaustion and must not work for some months; "This is a bore."
764	May 12, 1895	Violet Paget (Viareggio, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Feels the sea air is good for her health; will remain there until the 15th.
765	May 14, 1895	Violet Paget (Viareggio, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will remain there an extra day, returning to Florence on the 16th.
766	May 31, 1895	Violet Paget (Bale, Switzerland) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a good journey from Milan; will go to Pairs tomorrow.
767	June 2, 1895	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Has had invitations to visit Mme. Ormond, Mme. Heureux, and Mabel Price; is going to the Louvre and Notre Dame.
768	June 4, 1895	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Saw Mary Darmsteter, "very thin and altered, terribly."
769	June 7, 1895	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will dine with Bernard, "in my opinion quite the greatest living painter; will be in London on the 10th.
770	June 8, 1895	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)
771	June 10, 1895	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Had a pleasant journey from Paris; is staying with Bella Duffy; "I find London very abominable."
772	June 11, 1895	Violet Paget (Nottinghill, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Her lecture went well, but the audience was small; is going to Oxford.
773	June 13, 1895	Violet Paget to Kit Anstruther-Thomson
774	June 19, 1895	Violet Paget (Oxford) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Second lecture was successful, but the audience so small that "economically, it is a dead failure."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
775	June 26, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Asks her to tell Eugene that she could be back in Florence on the 1st or 15th of August.
776	June 28, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	The net profit from her lecture series just over 7 pounds; will visit the Simcoxes for the weekend; "my utter repugnance to dinner parties immensely chokes sociability."
777	July 3, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will go with Evelyn Wimbush to Norfolk for 3 days; interviewed R. Smith of Smith, Elder publishers.
778	July 6, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is glad Eugene will translate her "Madonna"; will leave England on the 24th.
779	July 11, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	"Debale" is willing to pay only for the translation of "Virgin of the Seven Daggers" not the original; will visit Fabbri for the weekend at Maidenhead; met R. LeGallienne, "a curious person got up with a 15th century head of hair."
780	July 13, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Debale is willing to pay only for the translation of "Virgin of the Seven Daggers" no the original; will visit Fabbri for the weekend at Maidenhead; met R. LeGallienne, "a curious person got up with a 15th Century head of hair."
781	July 16, 1895	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Will leave England on the 24th, staying with Mary Darmsteter in Paris the 28th-29th; from Paris, will travel to Florence via Bale and Milan.
782	July 20, 1895	Violet Paget (London, England) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will arrive in Florence August 1
783	July 28, 1895	Violet Paget (Beaufresne, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Found Dieppe "after England...so pretty and picturesque"; will go to Beauvais to see the cathedral; will arrive tomorrow at Mary Darmsteter's.
784	July 28, 1895	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Likes France, as it seems "no island or semi-island like England or Italy"; stayed with Miss Cassatt in France who seemed "the almost childish garrulous American provincial"; is afraid she was "blinded by a jealousy I was quite unaware of" in having such a negative view of Mary Darmsteter's marriage: "If so, what a loss for me, and what stuff are we made of?"
785	July 28, 1895	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is glad Eugene has decided to go to Andorno to see the Venostas.
786	August 6, 1895	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Eugene's trip to Andorno lasted only 24 hours, and he returned refusing to leave home again; "Good Lord, I shall always have him on my hands?"; Eugene, having gotten his own way,

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
			"seemed very cheerful...I feel dazed and utterly idiotic."
787	August 14, 1895	Violet Paget (San Marcello, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is enjoying her stay there at the Cinis' house.
788	August 15, 1895	Violet Paget (San Marcello, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Mme. Spalletti has invited her to visit, but it is impossible, as Amy Turton and Miss Price are coming to Florence.
789	August 18, 1895	Violet Paget (San Marcello, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will return to Florence on Tuesday.
790	August 20, 1895	Violet Paget (Foligno, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	On Saturday will go to Citta de Castello; visited Spello, "one of those curious little hill towns."
791	August 26, 1895	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Asks her to send the manuscript of the "Virgin of the Seven Daggers" to Watts; Eugene "is too weak to think about anything except himself"; is "working with delight at psychology"; Amy Turton will visit for the weekend.
792	September 10-12, 1895	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Eugene has gone to visit at Abetone for a while; "it is sad to find his absence such a relief"; Miss Price, who is visiting, "said since knowing me (V.P.) she had lost so much of her terror of people"; 11th: is writing a paper on Limbo; urges her to read Bain's "Emotions and Will"; 12th: the Bernards will come to Florence in October; is distressed that the criticism of experts can make so much trouble for artists.
793	September 21, 1895	Violet Paget (Pistoia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying with the Frenches there.
794	September 26, 1895	Violet Paget (Pistoia, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Will travel to Seravezza, stopping overnight at Lucca.
795	September 27, 1895	Violet Paget (Seravezza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	May stay there 3 or 4 days, as she wants to see some of the high quarries.
796	September 29, 1895	Violet Paget (Seravezza, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	She and Miss Price will ride up to the quarries on mules.
797	September 29, 1895	Violet Paget (Seravezza, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Arrived here 2 days ago, after a half day at Lucca; visited a quarry yesterday--"I had no idea how wonderfully lovely it was"; Mabel Price is a good companion, "like a delightful ghost by one's side"; will remain there 3 or 4 days more.
798	October 14, 1895	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is staying at Maria Pasolini's house.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
799	October 26, 1895	Violet Paget (Mte. Ricco, Italy) to Matilda Paget (Florence, Italy)	Is with Maria Pasolini who will take her for 2 days to Ravenna; will return to Florence on the 29th.
800	December 31, 1895	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Marie Belloc Lowndes (place unknown)	A letter of recommendation for Violet Garrad, requesting that Marie Belloc Lowndes get her a job as an illustrator.
801	September 12, 1896	Violet Paget (Exmouth, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Feels she has been a burden to Kit; Miss Price has invited her to go to Gloucester; is staying with Mabel Prices' aunt; Mabel is "radiant like a sort of archaic Apollo"; is anxious to be again in Florence with Kit; bicycling has made her lame; the Tremaynes were very nice when she visited.
802	September 15, 1896	Violet Paget (Exmouth, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Will go with Mabel Robinson to Gloucester; advises Kit not to lead a busy life and work at the same time, as it is bad for her health; will return to London on the 23rd or 24th; has plenty of money, so Kit should feel free to spend it; wants desperately for Kit and Mabel to become friends.
803	September 28, 1896	Violet Paget (London, England) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (Florence, Italy)	Intends to make Bella Duffy and Eugene the executors of her will; will leave Kit Anstruther-Thomson money in the will; would like to be able to give up writing for money; will go to Oxford on October 7th or 8th.
804	September 2, 1897	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Bernard Berenson (place unknown)	Confronts him with innuendoes he made in a letter to her and suggests that he is accusing her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson of plagiarism.
805	September 20, 1897	Violet Paget (Gloucester, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Has been doing a lot of bicycling; asks her to get certain books on psychology from the library; is glad to be "a free woman, with enough money to live on," but at the same time feels "there is something dreary in never being anything save a visitor in people's lives."
806	November, 1897	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Alfred W. Benn (place unknown)	Acknowledges receipt of Bernard Berenson's apology for his accusation of plagiarism, but deems the apology "unsatisfactory"; wishes Mr. Benn to fulfill his promise to act as arbitrator in the matter.
807	November 3, 1897	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mrs. Costelloe (Mary C. Berenson) (place unknown)	Concerns accusation of plagiarism made against V.P. and Kit Anstruter-Thomson by Bernard Berenson
808	November 9, 1897	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mrs. Costelloe (Mary C. Berenson) (place unknown)	As a P.S. to a letter from Kit Anstruther-Thomson to Mrs. Costelloe; discusses again the accusation that she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson plagiarized Bernard Berenson.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
809	November 12, 1897	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mrs. Costelloe (Mary C. Berenson) (place unknown)	Discusses the accusation of plagiarism made by Bernard Berenson against her and Kit Anstruther-Thomson.
810	November 17, 1897	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mrs. Costelloe (Mary C. Berenson) (place unknown)	Notes that she and Kit Anstruther-Thomson are accepting Bernard Berenson's apologies for his accusation of plagiarism; requests that her notes be examined to acquit her completely.
811	July 9, 1898 (?)	Violet Paget (Rothenburg, Germany) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Will remain there in "the most delightful place Germany can possibly produce" until the 11th; intends to go on to Paris, then to Eugene's wedding in London.
812	September 13, 1898	Violet Paget (Birmingham, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Northumberland, England)	Her plans for visiting people in London are uncertain; has been staying in Ireland with Lady de Vesce and Miss Vesey, who "make me feel that there is a home for me outside Italy"; will leave for Italy on September 30 or October 1.
813	October 16, 1898	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Eugene has become "more flat and unprofitable since his marriage"; her sister-in-law, Annie Holdsworth, irritates her; sends manuscript of her new book "Genius Loci" for comments and suggestions; the house in Florence is being remodelled; has had many invitations to visit friends in Italy.
814	November 10, 1898	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place unknown)	Wishes Kit to write more often to inform her of her travel plans; tells Kit to come to Florence only if she wants to and feels well enough.
815	December 4, 1898	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Recognizes her enormous need of Kit, "I don't know what would happen if I thought you were going to marry"; has just finished an article on "Firenze Antica" for the "Times"; had a bizarre interview with Herbert Horne; "my little romance with dear Lady de Vesce is dribbling its natural course into nothingness"; wants to normalize her relationship with Lady de Vesce without dropping the connection altogether.
816	December 21, 1899	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Understands Kit has been delayed in coming to Florence because she was caring for Mrs. Head after her operation; feels that living alone for 2 months has been good for her; Evelyn Wimbush, Miss Lowndes, and Mrs. Cruttwell are coming for Christmas.
817	n.d. (before March 5, 1899)	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mona Taylor (place unknown)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
818	March 5, 1899	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Sends along a letter just received from Kit Anstruther-Thomson asking, "is Kit reduced to imbecility of expression?"; finds the diagnosis of Mrs. Head's illness, whom Kit is nursing, hard to believe; "I have no attraction, no raison d'etre for her (Kit) except when I have teeth out!"
819	March 6, 1899	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Feels her suspicion of Mrs. Head's symptoms is due to "20 years of hysteria on my brother's part"; thinks Kit Anstruther-Thomson should not be giving Mrs. Head sympathy.
820	March 17, 1899	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Has decided she feels better about her relationship with Kit Anstruther-Thomson if she keeps Mrs. Head out of her thoughts; recognizes the break with Mary Darmsteter damaged her health, and feels "not 20 Kits would be worth losing my serenity and intellectual elasticity"; a long discussion of her sense of betrayal by Kit and a list of resolutions for dealing with the situation.
821	March 18, 1899	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Kit is angry with her for suggesting she borrow money from Mrs. Head to help Amy Turton start a convalescent home and nursing school; "I cannot lock my heart to Kit. I love her more than ever."
822	March 19, 1899	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Will not warn Kit against Mrs. Head, "I only want her to realize that she has a large share of my happiness in her keeping"; feels Kit doesn't want or need her anymore; to her motto "Labora et noli constriari" she now adds a feeling of great gratitude to Kit.
823	March 25, 1899	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Feels this world is one of "isolated atoms," but it is some comfort to think that other people have problems too; is not jealous of Kit's relationship with Mrs. Head, but feels that "she (Mrs. Head) is Fate against whom I cannot struggle"; is angry with Kit, not for staying with Mrs. Head, but for not being vexed that Mrs. Head was keeping her away from V.P., perhaps unnecessarily.
824	April 10, 1899	Violet Paget (place unknown) to Christine H. Head (place unknown)	Assures her that Kits' illness is past; feels that Kit nursing Mrs. Head last winter kept Kit from being ill herself; feels she and Mrs. Head must become friends because they are both so close to Kit.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
825	June 19, 1899	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Will work at improving her health as she would like to be entirely free from the lingering ailments of her long illness; feels Evelyn Wimbush is much better, emotionally, since her parents' death; has asked Amy Turton to come to Florence.
826	July 27, 1899	Violet Paget (Oxford, England) to Christian H. Head (Inverailot, Scotland)	Feels she should explain she did not visit Mrs. Head because Kit Anstruther-Thomson felt such a visit would be too upsetting to Mrs. Head's nerves.
827	October 28, 1899	Violet Paget (near Padua, Italy) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Carlo Placci is recovering from his long illness; has done much travelling lately: "I am learning to be a spectator of life, and a pleased one!"; Kit "has been more and more perfunctory" and is still with Mrs. Head.
828	December 7, 1899	Violet Paget (Ravenna, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	Has been reading a lot of books on psychology; will spend the winter working on literary analysis; after this, will begin "methodological enquiries on aesthetics"; lists several studies on aesthetics she intends to undertake; is enjoying being with Maria Pasolini, "so young, so quick of intellectual perception, and full of interest."
829	January 28-29, 1900	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)	High praise of Stevenson: "the man was a sort of saint and paladin mixed"; "Genius Loci" "has produced mainly a bill for postage of copies!"; admires Kits' brother Bill's courage for not going into the war; reaction to the news of Ruskin's death; a plan for "teaching the enjoyment of art...to the capable ones among the uneducated and poor"; 29th: has written ten pages on Ruskin.
830	February 2, 1900	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy (?)) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (unknown place)	Is writing a paper for the "Fortnightly" to be called "Our Debt to Ruskin"; feels that "marriage deprives women of intellectual staying power"; feels her early attraction to aesthetics, and her ability for sticking with it, makes her different from other women.
831	April 15, 1900	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Lillian Granville-Barker	Fells it will not be possible to arrange for a performance of "Ariadne": "it was intended for reading, not for the stage."
832	August 12, 1900	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Mona Taylor (Northumberland, England)	Feels she cannot return to Mona's house where she spent such a difficult time in her life (after her break with Kit); has resumed visiting old friends: Mrs. Stillman, Raneë Brooke; Kit has moved in with Mrs. Head; feels she can trust only old friendships.

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
833	December 13, 1900	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (unknown place)	Is using Kit's check to "feed up that tailoress I told you of!"; urges her to go abroad for the winter; writes of the disappointment she suffered at losing Kit: "it did to me a little what I suppose people mean when they speak about hearts breaking."
834	March 23, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Edinburgh, Scotland)
835	April 4, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
836	June 23, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
837	July 29, 1901	Violet Paget (Hampton Court, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Edinburgh, Scotland)
838	August 27, 1901	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
839	September 10, 1901	Violet Paget (city not named, France) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Glasgow, Scotland)
840	October 7, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
841	October 22, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
842	November 6, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
843	November 16, 1901	Violet Paget (place not named) to Evelyn Wimbush (place not named)
844	December 20, 1901	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Invernesshire, Scotland)
845	January 1, 1902	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
846	February 1, 1902	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
847	March 9, 1902	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Evelyn Wimbush (place not named)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
848	June 24, 1902	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
849	August 22, 1902	Violet Paget (place not named) to Annie Lee-Hamilton (place not named)
850	August 22, 1902	Violet Paget (place not named) to Eugene Lee-Hamilton (place not named)
851	October 25, 1902	Violet Paget (Astaffort, France) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Invernesshire, Scotland)
852	December 13, 1902	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Paris, France)
853	February 13, 1903	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
854	February 15-16, 1903	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
855	June 6, 1903	Violet Paget (Pistoia, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Paris, France)
856	August 19, 1903	Violet Paget (Surrey, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Glasgow, Scotland)
857	September 8, 1903	Violet Paget (Savoy, France) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverailort, Scotland)
858	October 7, 1903	Violet Paget (Zatters alla Calcina [?]) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverailort, Scotland)
859	October 16, 1903	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverailort, Scotland)
860	November 6, 1903	Violet Paget (Venice, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverailort, Scotland)
861	November 14, 1903	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Alice Callander (place not named)
862	November 16, 1903	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverailort, Scotland)
863	December 12, 1903	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
864	December 25-26, 1903	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
865	January 7, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
866	February 29, 1904	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
867	March 27, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
868	April 7, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
869	April 17, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
870	August 18, 1904	Violet Paget (Pittenweem, Scotland) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
871	October 23, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Fife, Scotland)
872	October 24, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
873	November 28, 1904	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
874	August 1, 1905	Violet Paget (Middleton-in-Teesdale, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
875	February 11, 1906	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
876	June 2, 1906	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Alexander Moring (place not named)
877	June 9, 1906	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Alexander Moring (place not named)	[Copy [?]] Includes draft of an agreement between Violet Paget and Alexander Moring, publisher.]
878	June 9, 1906	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to E. Grant Richards (place not named)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
879	June 18, 1906	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Alexander Moring (place not named)
880	May 6, 1906	Violet Paget (Bern, Switzerland) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverailort, Scotland)
881	November 25, 1906	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
882	n.d. [1907?]	Violet Paget (place not named) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (place not named)
883	September 14, 1907	Violet Paget (place not named) to Annie Lee-Hamilton (place not named)
884	October 25, 1907	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Sarah Orne Jewett (South Berwick, Maine)
885	November 7, 1907	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (Inverness, Scotland)
886	November 27, 1907	Violet Paget (Athens, Greece) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
887	December 20, 1907	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (place not named)
888	December 22, 1907	Violet Paget (Rome, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)
889	December 25, 1907	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)
890	December 28, 1907	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
891	n.d. [1908]	Violet Paget (place not named) to Carlo Placci (place not named)
892	January 3, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)
893	January 7, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)
894	January 8, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)
895	January 17, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
896	January 23, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Baden-Baden, Germany)
897	February 28, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Rome, Italy)
898	April 7, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
899	June 10, 1908	Violet Paget (place not named) to Elena French (place not named)
900	June 10, 1908	Violet Paget (place not named) to Eleanor Metcalfe (place not named)	Concerns alleged shooting of Baroness French's dog by Miss Metcalfe.
901	October 31, 1908	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (London, England)
902	November 25, 1908	Violet Paget (place not named) to Elena French (place not named)
903	November 26, 1908	Violet Paget (place not named) to Elena French (place not named)
904	December 22, [1909?]	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Herbert G. Wells (place not named)
905	January 5, 1910	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Herbert G. Wells (place not named)
906	January 19, 1910	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Herbert G. Wells (place not named)
907	February 13, 1911	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Austin Harrison (place not named)
908	November 13, 1911	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Matilda D. Shields (place not named)
909	November 17, 1911	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (Munich, Germany)
910	May 25, 1913	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Carlo Placci (place not named)
911	April 17, 1915	Violet Paget (London, England) to Union of Democratic Council (place not named)
912	September 26 ?, 1920	Violet Paget (place not named) to George Bernard Shaw (place not named)
913	January 23, 1924	Violet Paget (place not named) to Mrs. Berenson (place not named)	Is sending the first copy of a book to Mrs. Berenson in appreciation for "much hospitality and friendliness in the last few years."
914	February 3, 1926	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Bella Duffy (London, England)	Apparently in reply to a letter from Miss Duffy which told Violet Paget she was near death; consoles her and thanks her for "what you have been all through my life."

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
915	September 13, 1930	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Brooke, Ranee of Sarawak (Wimbledon, England)
916	January 31, 1933	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Roger Fry (London, England)
	Updated and Miscellaneous
917	August 23, 1898 ?	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
918	June 5 "wrong date," 1884	Violet Paget (Paris, France) to Matilda Paget (place not named)
919	n.d.	Violet Paget (on train in France) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)
920	September 2, 1895	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
921	n.d.	Violet paget (place not named) to Henry Paget (place not named)
922	January 21, 1901	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
923	August 14, 1905	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
924	October 22, n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
925	October 20, n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
926	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
927	August 19, 1906	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
928	September 14, 1920?	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
929	March 30, n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Miss Chittenden (place not named)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
930	n.d.	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
931	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
932	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
933	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
934	n.d.	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
935	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
936	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
937	n.d.	Violet Paget (Malmesbury, England) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
938	February 28, n.d.	Violet Paget (Sciarra, Italy?) to Kit Anstruther-Thomson (place not named)
939	July 2, 1888	Violet Paget (place not named) to Matilda Paget (place not named)	Envelope, no letter, note on back
940	n.d. (in 1884 letters)	Violet Paget (place not named) to Matilda Paget (place not named)
941	June, 1884		"Euphorion" Clipping
942	n.d.
943	August 9, 1882	Violet Paget (place not named) to Matilda Paget (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
944	n.d.	Violet Paget (place not named) to Matilda Paget (place not named)
944.1	n.d.
945	n.d.	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Matilda Paget (place not named)
946	August 21, n.d.	Violet Paget (Warkwick [?]) to Matilda Paget (place not named)
947	n.d.	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Matilda Paget (place not named)

Letter No.	Date of Letter	Title	Description
948	December 29, 1907	Violet Paget (place not named) to Irene Forbes-Mosse (place not named)	Envelope to missing letter
949	November 4, 1895	Violet Paget (place not named) to Marie Belloc Lowndes
950	n.d., 1895	Violet Paget (Florence, Italy) to Marie Belloc Lowndes (place not named)
951	July 21, 1895	Violet Paget (Chelsea, England) to Marie Belloc Lowndes (place not named)
952	1899		Envelope labeled: "Mona Taylor's excellent letter to me after Kit's departure and my letters to her which she sent back at this time."
953	1882		Envelope labeled: "V.P. letters Home 1882"
954			Wrapper labeled: 1881, 1883, 1885; V.P.'s letters home (in considerable disorder)