

Latin American Studies Major Tabla 2024

Core Classes

- Latin American Studies 173
- Latin American Studies 174
- Spanish 135 Must be completed before study abroad

Two Latin American Humanities Classes (200 level or above.) This includes Music, Philosophy, and Spanish at Colby, as well as these and other humanistic disciplines taught as part of semesters abroad.

_____
_____

Four Latin American Social Science Classes (200 level or above.) This includes Anthropology, Economics, Government, and History at Colby, as well as these and additional social science disciplines taught as part of semesters abroad.

_____
_____
_____
_____

At Least One Semester Abroad in a Latin American Country on an Approved Program or One Approved by Petition or Waiver Approval (Students may count up to four semester courses of foreign study credit toward the major if they study abroad for an entire year, but only up to two semester courses if they study abroad for just one semester. Students with transfer credits should be advised that four semester courses, combining study abroad and credits from other institutions, is the maximum total permitted to count toward the LAS major.)

_____

Capstone (Senior Seminar, Advanced Independent Study 400 level, Honors Thesis)

_____

Course Offerings

(subject to change)

*Asterisk indicates that course is offered in Fall 2024

+Plus sign indicates that final paper/project must be completed on Latin America

^Indicates that course is offered in Spring 2025

~ Indicates that course is pending approval

AR297B Contemporary Art and Spirituality of Island Worlds (Jan Plan)

Humanities classes from study abroad

AY231 Anthropology of the Caribbean+

AY236 Illegal Drugs, Law and the State+^

AY249 Courts, Trials and Pursuit of Justice+

AY365 Space, Place and Belonging+

EC214 Economic Policy and Performance in Contemporary Latin America

G0253 Latin American Politics

G0256 Democracy and Human Rights in LA

G0456 Civil Society and Social Movements in LA

LA/HI272 Mexico: The History of Justice, Rights and Revolution

LA/HI277 The History of the Maya*

LA/HI372 Environmental History of Modern Latin America^

LA/HI378 U.S. in LA: Intervention, Influence, Integration

PL260 Latin American Philosophy*

SP237 Conquest and Resistance in the Americas

SP239 Latin America at the Movies*

SP244 Bad Women and B-Films in Contemporary Latin America^

SP254 Aqui estamos: U.S. Latinx in the 20th and 21st Centuries

SP297 Black Lives Matter in the Hispanic World

SP298B Baila: History, Culture, and Performance of Latin Dance

SP343 Indigenous Textualities, Decoloniality, and Land Sovereignty*

SP343 Indigenous Textualities and Decolonial Modernities

SP348 The Afro-Americas: Race, Power, and Subjectivity

SP498 Sex, Drugs, and Magic in Mexico and the Caribbean

SP297 Latin American Theater

SP298 Language Justice and Civic Engagement^

SP397 Borderlands Cinema

SP347 Latinx Indigeneities and Mesoamerican Borders^

SP398 Environmental Knowledge, Imperialism, and Resistance

SP398B BLM in the Hispanic World^

SP258 Baila: History, Culture, and Performance of Latin Dance

SP297 Deep Ecology in Human Imagination

SP346 Race, Rights, and Land in the Americas

SP335 Interplay Between Speculative Fiction and Environmental Fiction*

SP498 Abia Yala: Indigenous Resistance, Revolution, and Decoloniality

SP498 Sex, Drugs, and Magic in Mexico and the Caribbean

SP498 Interplay Between Speculative and Environmental Fiction

SP495 Seminar: The Shifting Americas: Race, Power, and Subjectivity^

TD297 Tomorrow Will be Bigger! : Tomorrow Will Be Bigger! Performing Protest in Brazil (Jan Plan)